Skinny Skribbles

Around And About Town

With C. F. SKIRVIN

In Santa Ana next Saturday another one of those Dollar Day events will take place. Retailers will stress merchandising values. To call your attention to this event in this column may not be quite ethical, but it's economical, and I find a lot of people who are thinking along these lines nowadays. So make your own inspections tomorrow. The merchants will give you your money's worth.

Angry driver "says something" to truck operator who imposes a delay for less than a minute while backing his truck into an alley so he could unload merchandise, which a crew of men was waiting to handle, and others to unpack and place on display so people could buy it. But the impatient autoist acted like no one was involved but himself, and he probably had so little to do that he got hot about not being able to do it. Gee, ain't we reasonable?

Now that the parking problem hasn't been settled, and probably won't be let's talk about it. Anyway you got to admit it has improved under the police's rapid-transit marking system. More cars are moving in and moving out quicker than ever before, which means more accommodations for shoppers.

Looked like a little team work or synchronization at the Kirby Shoe plant Thursday morning. Manager Clyde Skinner had consumed all of Wednesday's business day cleaning up and readjusting the stock, and the next morning 50 cases of new shoes arrived to take the place of the wide open spaces. Weather was ideal for indoor sports, and Clyde appeared in a playful mood when I called, even if he didn't feel that way inside. When you think you haven't got anything, some one sends it to you.

And then there is the poker player who tells you about how much money he won that day, but he neglects to tell you how much he lost the night before.

Lynn Hart tells me he is going to Bakersfield, but he failed to take into account the pernicious activity of the flu germ, which flits from door to door, and knocked at Lynn's house. So instead of going to Bakersfield he goes home, and when I ask a friend if he had arrived from the north I got the answer that "he ain't been no place, yet."

Most of the crime is being committed by young people. At least I'm beyond the age of suspicion.

Ray Taylor, sales supervisor for the Edison company, either didn't have enough work to do, or else he is capable of doing a lot more, so the Pomona district is included in his territory. Shucks, now I won't be able to quarrel with him as often as I used to, unless I go over to Pomona occasionally, and who wants to go to Pomona—for a quarrel.

When I inquire for a friend I get the answer that "he has gone fishing in an airplane." And I'm expected to swallow that line.

Ike Fields' faith in human nature hasn't wavered, recession or no. He accepts one-cent advance payment on a five-cent cup of coffee. That boy will take a four cent risk any time.

Those 500 little business men who went east to tell the troubles to the administration, evidently meant it. They got out of bounds, and Brother Roper had to split 'em up into smaller sections so they wouldn't get in each other's way. I just try and get along with my troubles at home.

I just found out (with apologies to Millard Browne) that Flake Smith is a skeptic. Went over (Continued on Page 2, Col. 3)

FDR Signs New Housing Bill

HUGE HOME PROGRAM IS ANTICIPATED

Building Wave May Follow FHA Decision

WASHINGTON. (AP)—President Roosevelt last night signed legislation designed to stimulate a vast private home building program through liberalization of federal mortgage insurance.

The legislation in the form of amendments to the existing federal housing act, is the first major administration recommendation to be enacted this session.

The housing amendments were proposed during the special session that began Nov. 15, but the senate did not complete legislative action until last Tuesday. Senate approval came after a Republican amendment which would have required payment of the local prevailing wage on insured projects had been eliminated by a two-vote margin.

MAY TURN TIDE

One of the first steps taken by the administration to turn the tide of the recession, the legislation is designed to put the construction industry to work by reducing the cost of financing private building of homes.

The bill provides: Federal Housing administration insurance of mortgages amounting to 90 per cent of the value of homes costing up to $2,000.

REBELS SINK BRITISH SHIP

BARCELONA. (AP)—The British freighter Alcira, trying to run the Spanish insurgent blockade, was bombed by two planes and sunk today 20 miles southeast of Barcelona.

Her crew of 25 and an observer for the non-intervention control, all British, were rescued by a Spanish government sloop and fishing vessels and brought to Barcelona.

A Barcelona communique said the planes came from the direction of Palma, Mallorca, insurgent naval and air base.

Like the British freighter Endymion, sunk by an unidentified submarine off the Spanish east coast Monday, the Alcira was trying to carry a cargo of coal to a government port.

The Alcira, 1387 tons, left Gibraltar for Barcelona Jan. 31, under command of Capt. M. McCracken of Glasgow.

FATHER JAILED IN CHECK DEAL

Thomas Anderson, 33-year-old graduate chemist, and a father for the second time two days ago, must spend a year in the county jail for writing two fictitious checks.

The jail term was imposed by Presiding Superior Judge James L. Allen today as a condition of two years' probation after Anderson said, "I had to get money somewhere to feed my wife and baby. I couldn't get a job."

Anderson pleaded guilty to passing a $51.48 check Dec. 13 on B. E. Ogiste and a check for $6.70 Jan. 1 on Curtis Ware of Laguna Beach.

Beer Thief Gets Record Probation

Andy Rios, who admitted breaking into a store and stealing several bottles of beer, was granted probation today for one of the longest periods on local court records—15 years.

Rios' probation was granted by Presiding Superior Judge James L. Allen on condition the defendant return to Mexico and stay there. His alleged partner in crime, Robert Ruiz, pleaded not guilty and will stand trial Mar. 15.

Teacher Mixed In Hammer Row To Face Trial

James L. Stevenson, young shop teacher at Santa Ana High school, was at liberty today on his own recognizance today but accused in a criminal complaint of striking a 19-year-old student on the head with a hammer.

Stevenson surrendered himself in Justice Kenneth E. Morrison's court a few minutes after Deputy Dist. Atty.

Robert Gardner had issued a complaint on demand of the youth's father A. E. Kohler, 1601 Willets street.

Floyd Kohler, 19-year-old junior student, was recovering from a wound on his head which he says was inflicted by a hammer in the teacher's hand. His physician said the injury probably is not permanent, although the youth is suffering headaches.

Stevenson will answer to arraignment next Friday at 3:30 p. m. before Justice Morrison, at which time a date for trial will be set.

The scuffle in which young Kohler was injured occurred last Friday afternoon in the school shop's tool room, the boy told Gardner. Kohler said he had been given permission by Byron F. Quivey, shop superintendent, to enter the tool room and get a gallon can.

As he entered, he said he met Stevenson, who had ordered him out of the shop before on grounds Kohler was a troublemaker. "Get out of here!" he said Stevenson shouted.

The teacher assertedly attempted to put the student out, but was stopped by a police officer. (Continued on Page 2, Col. 5)

New Russian Air Head Named

MOSCOW. (AP)—Vasily Molokoff, the polar flying ace, today was named chief of all Soviet civil aviation, succeeding Ivan Fedorovich Tkacheff.

Molokoff was one of the fliers who helped establish the Soviet's North pole camp eight months ago. In April, 1934, he helped rescue 62 members of an exploring party marooned in a Bering sea ice floe after the expedition ship Cheluskine was crushed by ice and sunk.

Dairymen To Fix Price of Milk

Public hearing preparatory to setting a minimum price on milk sold wholesale and retail throughout Orange county will be held here after March 1, it was announced today by C. H. Christie, secretary-manager of the dairymen's association.

An effort will be made to set the minimum at the present rate prevalent throughout Orange county, Christie said. Final decision will rest with A. A. Brock, director of the California department of agriculture.

Minimum retail home delivered prices in Orange county on milk with a 4.2 per cent milk fat is 13 cents a quart with pints selling at 9 cents. Minimum retail prices at stores on quarts is 12 cents and pints 8 cents. The stores purchase the milk wholesale for 10 and 7 cents per quart and pint, respectively, according to Christie. The gallon rate is 32, 36 and 40 cents.

The director of agriculture will carefully study milk supply and demand in the county, giving consideration to costs, profits and bulk.

Time and place of the proposed public hearing will be set by Director Brock, Christie said, adding the dairymen's association is desirous of having the meeting at the earliest possible date.

The inquiry board, he said, will seek information that "will make it impossible for such tragedies to occur again."

Two huge patrol bombers, the 11-P-3 and 11-P-4, of squadron VP-11, at San Diego, collided in a squall Wednesday night 70 miles off the coast, and plunged into the sea with 10 of the 14 crewmen.

Four, by an order from their heroic commander, Lieut. Carleton B. Hutchins, parachuted from the 11-P-4 before it fell to destruction.

Simone Sneezes

Petite-est of the petite French actresses, Simone Simon (above) today was reported recovering from pneumonia. One of the screen's most noted temperature-raisers, Simone's own temperature dropped from 103 to 100 this morning and physicians were confident of her recovery. She has had a cold for two weeks.

'HAT TOSSERS' GIVEN 'RING'

Horace Head's Assembly of Democrats rang the bell today for the first in a series of open meetings introducing Democratic candidates for governor to Orange county residents.

Senator Culbert Olson will speak here Friday, Feb. 25 in the junior college under Assembly sponsorship—but not with endorsement of the organization, which wears no man's collar in the primaries.

"This," said Head, "is in accordance with the policy adopted by the executive council of sponsoring appearances by each candidate for the nomination. The assembly does not expect to endorse any candidate, but to let the voters see and hear them and form their own opinions."

With the assembly adopting a hands-off policy until the primary election is over, Chester Dale's Democratic Clubs are actively campaigning for the Epic senator. The Dale group broke off from the assembly after Head's supporters ousted Dale himself as chairman of the county assembly.

The assembly meeting will be preceded by a 6 p. m. dinner at Daniger's for officers, directors and members of the executive board. The public is invited to the later meeting, scheduled for the junior college hall.

None of the 11-P-3's seven men had a chance as roaring flames enveloped it immediately after its high wing struck that of the 11-P-4.

Of the four survivors, picked up by a crash launch from the flagship Pennsylvania, J. H. Hester, radioman, died a few hours later aboard the hospital ship Relief, while the fleet vainly searched for the missing bodies of his 10 comrades in service.

D. B. McKay and V. O. Hatfield, who suffered broken legs, and L. S. Carpenter, his arm fractured, are under treatment on the Relief today.

The air disaster was the second during navy war drill in recent weeks. Just 26 days earlier, a sister bomber disappeared with seven men.

Named to the board of inquiry were Comm. Henry Mullinex of the flagship Wright, aircraft scouting force, chairman; Lieut. Comm. W. G. Thomlinson, Lieut. Comm. Clifton A. Young of the

Rains Continue On Anniversary Of Heavy Flood

The third consecutive day of rain for Orange county washed Dewpoint the Duck right into the office today.

He flapped his wet wings and quacked: "Wash out, wash out! 'One year ago today...'"

And the wave washed Dewpoint back out again with his warning unfinished. But a search of the records disclosed that today is the anniversary of last year's disastrous flood, when from 6:30 p. m. to 6:30 a. m. inches and inches of water fell, filling rivers from bank to bank, and nearly washing the county off the map.

And as a second warning note—Fullerton's rain average on the eve of the flood was exactly 8.71 inches. And today, one year later, its average is exactly 8.71 inches!

With official forecasts calling for more rain in the next 24 hours, the storm that began on Jan. 31 continued through last night, bringing season totals to near normal throughout the county.

San Clemente was the driest spot in the county, receiving for only .37 of an inch through the four-day storm, and posting a season record of only 4.43 inches. Fullerton was the wettest, with a season average of 8.71 inches.

Heaviest rain during the four-day period fell at San Juan Capistrano, with 2.75 inches; Santiago Dam was a close second, with 6.64. In Santa Ana, City Engineer J. L. McBride denied that rains had "endangered" the Santa Ana boulevard bridge over the river, declaring that yesterday's damage

'PLOT,' SAYS EXECUTIVE

Council tries to Force Boice to Resign

BULLETIN. Asserting that he will "light this thing to a flare," Mayor A. Croxton Boice of Orange today charged that Dr. J. E. Riley, another member of the council, "told me if I would resign from the council the charges would be dropped."

"It's all politics!" snorted Dr. A. Croxton Boice, elderly Orange mayor.

Mayor Boice was free today on his own recognizance, pending answer to arraignment next Tuesday on two counts of petty theft, formally charged as month-long rumors burst into the open.

The retired physician-Townsend surrendered himself late yesterday afternoon after a justice court complaint charged him with stealing city gasoline on six separate occasions.

"ALL A PLOT?" He charged the whole thing is a "plot" by Dr. J. E. Riley, another city councilman, to wrest control of the city from the Townsend pension faction, headed by Dr. Boice and two other councilmen.

Accusation of the Orange mayor made him the second public official of the county to be called to (Continued on Page 3, Col. 2)

ADMIRAL LEAHY POINTS LACK

WASHINGTON. (AP)—Admiral William D. Leahy told the house naval committee today the United States navy is incapable of defending both the Atlantic and Pacific seacoasts at the same time.

The chief of naval operations asserted "adequate" defense of both coastlines would require a "very much larger increase" than the proposed $800,000,000 expansion program.

A warning that Germany's "flirtation" with Brazil may necessitate United States fleet in the Atlantic "in the very near future" came from Representative McGrath (D., Cal.)

MEETING CALLED BY DEMOCRATS

The Democratic Coordinating Council of the 19th Congressional district will meet at Daniger's cafe, Thursday night, Feb. 17, at 7 o'clock, according to Atty. B. Z. McKinney, retiring chairman of the organization.

At the session McKinney will turn the gavel over to U. S. District Attorney Ben Harrison, who succeeds him as head of the group. Business to be transacted will include formation of a district precinct organization to operate at the next general election.

Council members include Democratic leaders from the counties of Orange, Riverside and San Bernardino. Each county is permitted seven active delegates.

Don't Even Dare To Say 'Happy Birthday' Here

Happy birthday to you! To which Mrs. William Hemmen's rejoinder today was an emphatic "sex you!"

Yesterday Mrs. Hemmen, who lives at 642 South Parton street, was the recipient of a surprise party given by eight of her friends in celebration of her birthday.

Overjoyed, Mrs. Hemmen stepped gaily out on the porch midway in the festivities, fell down and broke her leg.

From her St. Joseph's hospital bed today she was thinking of having no more birthday parties.

Donors of the unfortunate party were Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. E. U. Farmer, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Frevert and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Harlow.

Giggle Week Is Suggestion To End Recession

SEATTLE. (AP)—Three "small business men" announced today what the country needed to do most about the recession was to "laugh it off."

They organized the National Laugh club, with its object establishment of local laugh lodges throughout the country to sponsor a national laugh week.

Robert O. Jones, former Idaho secretary of state and now a community newspaper publisher and ex-officio secretary of the laughers, explained:

"There's too much tension and moaning going on. What the country needs more than anything else is more humor. Let's laugh off the recession. We already have Cheese weeks and Prune weeks, but certainly a national laugh week is more important."

GIRLS, OUT OF GAS, GET WILD RIDE; 1 HURT

Driver Ran Over Fleeing Victim, Charge

A fantastic story of criminal assault and possible attempted murder—corroborated by the mangled leg of an attractive young Anaheim woman—today launched a search that led to the arrest, shortly before noon, of Tom Jesko, about 32, 806 West Central street, Balboa, on charges of assaulting Mrs. Bessie Epperly early this morning.

He grabbed her... She lurched free and fell to the pavement... The car ran over her leg... He stopped, swung quickly into reverse and "deliberately tried" to run over her again... But she squirmed out of the way, hobbled into a nearby orchard and hid... SOBBERD STORY

That was the story Mrs. Epperly sobbed to deputy sheriffs and Anaheim police today, as she lay at her home, 832 South Philadelphia street, Anaheim, shuddering as she recalled details of the experience.

It all happened, she said, when the man, a stranger who had offered her and her cousin a ride to Anaheim to get gasoline for their stalled car... It was on the way back that he grabbed her, she told police.

GRIM EVIDENCE But for the severely bruised and lacerated leg—and the eye-witness account of Mrs. Epperly's cousin—the story might have sounded more like a nightmare than grim reality to the investigating officers.

Jesko being held on an open count but facing possible charges ranging from assault with a deadly weapon to assault with intent to commit murder—admitted none of it today, except that he had picked up Mrs. Epperly and her cousin when they ran out of gasoline, that he had taken them to Anaheim to get more, then had brought them back to their car and left them there.

BLOODY PANTS CLUE IN CRIME

LOS ANGELES. (AP)—A pair of bloodstained trousers which indicated the owner was unusually tall led sheriff's officers to arrest Fred H. Killian, who towers 6 feet, 6 1/2 inches, in connection with the mystery slaying of two men in Huntington Park.

Deputy Sheriff Willard Killian said today the suspect had confessed he shot J. W. Burke, 57, owner of a check-cashing service, last Jan. 21, as he and the other slain man, Frank J. Ellers, 47, were attempting to rob him in his office.

The trousers were found in a hotel room occupied by Ellers and Killian, which the officers located through the initials on a pillow case that the men apparently had brought to use in carrying away the loot.

Giant Inmate of Infirmary Runs Amuck, Slays Trio

WOUNDS TWO IN FRENZIED ATTACKS

'Called Me a Name,' State Charge Says

TEWKSBURY, Mass. (AP)—Three inmates of a state infirmary were slain and two others wounded critically early today, state police charged, by a 70-year-old giant inmate who ran amuck with a revolver and was at large for three hours before being captured in nearby Lowell.

The dead were: Michael O'Keefe, 70, Edward Mercier, 70, and James Magee, 78. Joseph O'Donnell, 55, and John Lewis, 76, were in a critical condition.

MACK ARRESTED

The alleged assailant was John Mack, 70, of Chelsea, six-foot three inmate who fled the institution after the shootings. Nearly three hours later he was picked up in Lowell three miles away by two Lowell policemen after squads of state troopers and city police had concentrated on the wooded area around the institution here.

Mack was immediately placed in a cell at Lowell police headquarters. He offered no resistance and was unarmed when captured.

Patrolman Thomas Nelson said Mack was booked on a murder charge. He was not questioned pending the arrival of Capt. John F. Stokes, chief of state detectives.

Massachusetts Public Safety Commissioner Eugene M. Sweeney and state detectives were at the infirmary a short time after the shooting endeavoring to learn where the pistol was obtained and the motive for the attack.

DISCOVER SLAYINGS

Mack was admitted to the institution in October, 1937, but officials said he had been "in and out" of the infirmary several times before that.

Leo O'Connor, an attendant at the institution, who is primarily for needy persons, said the shooting was discovered after he found the door in the ward open shortly after 4 a. m.

The ward, he said, accommodated 800 men ranging in age from 55 to 80 years of age. The institution houses 3200 inmates.

Capt. James J. Kennedy later said Mack admitted shooting the five men. He did it, the police officials quoted him as saying, because they called him "a bad name."

MAIL-ORDER GUN
Captain Kennedy said Mack recently obtained a pistol from a mail order house.

The shootings capped a dramatic climax to investigation of a mounting total of violent deaths in Massachusetts mental hospitals. Police discovered last week that violent deaths since 1926 totalled more than 500, including eight

Bowers Museum Assured Display Of Indian Relics

A new display for Bowers museum—of Indian relics—was assured today.

Reports from W. B. Murbarger, Costa Mesa archeologist now engaged in excavating relics on the 42,000-acre San Marcos ranch near Santa Barbara, indicate success.

More than 30,000 Indian-made shell, stone and bone beads, charms, pendants and hair ornaments have been removed from 21 graves within the past three weeks, Murbarger said.

He announced that all finds in the ancient grounds will be placed on display in the museum on his return to Orange county.

both of them related. Stevenson claims the youth tried to strike him and that the blow was inflicted with the hammer handle. Kohler says he did not swing at Stevenson, and that the teacher may have struck with the head of the hammer.

Kohler and his father both had talked with Gardner and Dist. Atty. W. F. Menton after the scuffle, but neither had expressed a desire to press charges until this morning.

PRINCIPAL TO ACT

Principal Lynn Crawford of the high school had told Kohler that "appropriate action would be taken," but then said he had understood Kohler wanted to drop the charges.

The father said today he had told Crawford he would not press charges if Stevenson would resign, but Stevenson declined.

"It might have been serious," said the father today, "if he had hit just a little lower and maybe struck his eye. I don't think he ought to get away with that sort of thing."

Stevenson is charged with simple assault, punishable by $500 fine, six months in jail, or both.

slayings of patients by other inmates.

Aides of State Auditor Thomas H. Buckley, who uncovered the killings during a check of hospital records, said weapons ranged from pickaxes to fists.

State police detectives, ordered to investigate all hospitals by Governor Charles F. Hurley, found 424 patients died from other than natural causes between 1926 and 1936, and reported 118 additional "sudden deaths" during 1937.

Bank Files Suits On Promise Notes

Suits for $3615 and $864.38 on two promissory notes were filed today in superior court against Mr. and Mrs. Norman G. Bottger and Roy Beall.

The Bank of America sued the Bottgers on a note assertedly signed by them March 21, 1934, bearing seven per cent interest.

H. W. Everts filed suit against Beall, asking $864.38 balance due after foreclosure of property assigned in a $1600 note signed Sept. 13, 1932.

During the trial nine feminine witnesses told of the Curtis-Carr combination's transactions with them, and eight of them showed how they had been defrauded.

One of them was 82 years old, a seamstress who gave Carr her last $10 and then borrowed $50 more to buy leases, Judge Ames pointed out.

Radio Beam Aids Safe Landing

A radio beam transmitter, similar to one which will be constructed at Santa Ana, safely landed a passenger plane at Long Beach today carrying 16 persons. Visibility was too poor to set it down at Grand Central station in Los Angeles.

This was the first occasion the emergency beam at Long Beach had been used. The Santa Ana radio beam transmitter will be located at the Eddie Martin airport, costing approximately $25,000. It is expected the station here will be placed in operation about June.

Robber Gets Out On Probation

Earl Ira Morgan, convicted by a superior court jury last week on a robbery charge, was granted three years' probation today by Superior Judge G. K. Seovel.

Morgan was convicted of one robbery count and acquitted of another by the jury, which heard evidence on Morgan's activities at an Irvine service station and cafe Christmas eve in company with a 16-year-old hitch-hiker. Morgan must make restitution of some $24 taken in the cafe holdup, and must return to his home state of New Mexico.

iffs she had jumped from the car just a moment before Mrs. Epperly fell. She stood by the roadside and watched her cousin fall under the machine, she said.

She also reported seeing the car stop, quickly back up as her cousin scrambled from under its wheels. Then she joined Mrs. Epperly and together they hid behind a signpost while the assailant assertedly drove back and forth along the 101 highway "as if he was searching" for them.

The two women had left Bob's place on 101 highway, where they are employed, at 2:45 a. m., running out of gas on North Main street just inside the Santa Ana city limits.

OVERNIGHT RIDE
They walked back to the cafe, said they were out of gas and Jesko assertedly offered to take them to Anaheim. They purchased the gas from Paul H. Hamrith, 624 South Clementine street, at a station in the southern part of Anaheim and started back toward Santa Ana.

It was just before they reached the intersection of Manchester boulevard, they told officers, that Jesko "started to get fresh."

GUN FALLS
As he reached out to grab Mrs. Epperly, sitting in the center, the women said a gun fell to the floor. Becoming frightened, Mrs. Boone told officers she jumped from the car and her cousin reportedly tried to follow.

Mrs. Epperly said she finally wriggled loose, fell to the pavement and under the car.

After the driver finally stopped patrolling back and forth in front of the scene, according to the women's story, they came back onto the highway and a friend, James Stepe, 820 South Claudia street, Anaheim, stopped and took them home.

Jesko was arrested by Sheriff Logan Jackson and Deputies G. F. McKelvey and John Gilmore this morning.

Mrs. Carr made appointments for Curtis with "clients" and was present during many of the sales talks.

She had been branded as "the more dangerous of the two" by Deputy Dist. Atty. J. E. Walker in his closing argument for the state.

During the trial nine feminine witnesses told of the Curtis-Carr combination's transactions with them, and eight of them showed how they had been defrauded.

WOMEN URGED TO LEAD CHURCH

CHICAGO, (AP)—A larger share of responsibility in church leadership was demanded for women today at Methodistism's largest gathering in American history.

The demand came from the only woman speaker at the denomination's meeting, Miss Georgia Harkness, professor of religion at Mount Holyoke college.

In a prepared address to the United Methodist council on the future and faith and service, Miss Harkness termed the church the "last stronghold of male dominance" and charged it was being drained of capable leadership by discrimination against women.

Imperial Likes Our Road Plan

Members of the Imperial Highway association favor Orange County Planning commission's proposal to zone Manchester avenue, and appear desirous of making similar plans for their own highway.

This was made evident recently at a meeting of the group, held at Elsinore, at which time Jules Markel, secretary of the Orange County Planning commission, presented Consultant L. Deming Tilton's report on the Manchester avenue marginal zoning plan.

The Imperial committee is reported to have been so interested in the report they adopted a resolution to present to the Los Angeles board of supervisors, urging immediate steps be taken for the proper zoning of the highway through Los Angeles county and for the Orange county officials to do likewise.

LIONS HEAR TALK ON WAR REFERENDUM

"We must make up our minds—if we think congress might declare war although the people are not for it, then we need the Ludlow amendment."
Dr. John Brown Mason, international affairs authority and faculty member at Santa Ana Junior college, thus summed up the war-referendum question before Lions club members yesterday afternoon.
Dr. Mason presented arguments both for and against the Ludlow measure, which provides for a national plebiscite before congress could declare war.

Arguments for the referendum, he said, include:
1. The United States is a democracy and the people should decide the war question for themselves.
2. Congress has only six women members, women, as mothers, should have a larger say so than that.
3. A referendum could be conducted within a few days by use of newspapers and radio.
Arguments against it:
1. This country is a democracy only by representation, and congress is elected to make decisions for the voters.
2. Popular sentiment always has been behind every declaration of war—in some cases the public wanted to rush into war when congress postponed action.
3. Congress could not declare war if the people were opposed to it.
4. Foreign relations would be crippled, because the threat of national action would be weakened if foreign powers knew there might be delay.

ORANGE MAYOR IS ARRESTED

court within the past two weeks. Supervisor N. E. West of Laguna Beach already faces a civil ouster action brought by the grand jury on four counts of wilful and corrupt misconduct in office.
"PLAZA SITTER"
"This man Evans (Lewis Evans, retired, of 328 North Glassell street, complaining witness) is just one of the plaza-sitters," sputtered the accused mayor.
"Dr. Riley is back of all this. Riley's term is up this year, and if he can get Carl Carlson, Henry Bandick or myself off the council he will run again, thereby gaining control of the city government."

First reports that the city gasoline situation was being investigated were published exclusively in The Journal several weeks ago, after a committee of the county grand jury called a consultation with Orange city councilmen.
COUNCIL RULING
Dr. Boice, it was reported, had asked to be allowed gasoline expenses for driving his own car on city business. Other members of the council were reported to have turned him down, and the present complaint accuses the mayor of taking the gasoline despite their ruling.
The complaint was signed by Evans yesterday afternoon, and Dr. Boice surrendered to Constable George Bartley after a warrant had been issued by Justice of the Peace Cal Lester.

Arraigned on the two-count petty theft complaint, the mayor asked time in which to enter a plea, and Justice Lester set the date for Tuesday at 10 a. m. The mayor was released on his own recognizance.
VALUE $7.80
The first count in the complaint charges the mayor stole 12 gallons of gasoline, worth $1.44, on Sept. 21. The second count charges theft on five other occasions, ranging from Sept. 11 to Dec. 28. Total value of gasoline the mayor is charged with stealing is $7.80.

The mayor reportedly had been asked to resign from office, although other councilmen denied discussing the matter with Dr. Boice, who was said to have refused to quit.
Dr. Boice and Riley have been at swords' points for some time. Dr. Boice was elected to the council with strong Townsend pension support, as were Carlson and Bandick.

The mayor now charges Dr. Riley is attempting to swing Kellar Watson, jr., appointed recently to the council, to the Riley side—and then to remove one of the Townsend groups and seize control of the city government.

Music Project Symphony Well Received by Audience

By BOB GUILD
Santa Ana audiences do not react to the sublime in music—but they do to rhythm. Santa Ana audiences also prefer the nostalgic and familiar to formal musical patterns.
Witness last night's midwinter concert by the Federal symphony. Prolonged applause from the disappointed crowd greeted 'Cellist Edward Burns' interpretation of the familiar Kol Nidrei. Enthusiastic applause greeted the orchestra's spirited rendition of that well-known fandango, the Espana Rhapsody of Chabrier.
MASTERFUL PERFORMANCE
But for the entirely masterful performance of Brahms' majestic first symphony the applause was more polite than pyrotechnic, save that the audience entirely overlooked the third movement—probably because it ends on a note of question, an upturned note, as it were.
"Cellist Burns, of course, gathered the lion's share of plaudits for his soulful playing of the ancient Jewish chant. Like the celebrated maestro who insisted applause was "a receipt, and not an order," 'Cellist Burns refused an encore despite repeated demands.
SMALL AUDIENCE
Slightly less than 300 music lovers braved intermittent rains to hear Director Leon Eckles demonstrate that repeated and rigorous rehearsal sessions had integrated his orchestra.
The 50 musicians did full honors to the Brahms symphony. The work of the violin sections, led by Concertmaster Elwood Bear, in the andante movement of the symphony, was outstanding.
The symphony's rapidly shifting moods, from its majestic opening measures to the gracious allegretto of the third movement and the splendid march of its allegro non troppo finale gave full sway to the talents of the orchestra.

NEW TYPE PLANE TO HOP TODAY

LOS ANGELES, (AP)—Aviation's newest brain child—a transport designed for roughing it in the world's worst flying country—is expected to take to the air for the first time here today.

Built by two aeronautical engineers, it combines features of sea and land, metal and wooden craft. The single, stubby high wing carries two 425-horsepower engines. It spans 50 feet.

The landing gear, like a kiddie's tricycle, has three rubber-tired wheels which keep the plane's tail high off the ground.

The 38-foot hull is constructed of wood, except for a long nose of duralumin.

In addition to the tricycle gear, large flaps, or air brakes, will enable the plane to land in a small field, Otto Timm said. The steering mechanism is hydraulically controlled.

Performance estimates are vague, pending test flights, but aviation sources here predicted the transport would easily exceed 200 miles an hour.

Built primarily for the export trade, it has attracted the interest of several foreign buyers.

SCHOOL BLAST LAID TO LEAK

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The bureau of mines blames a gas leak rather than seepage from surrounding lines or wells for the disastrous New London, Tex., school explosion last March 18 that claimed nearly 300 lives.

The bureau said reports were that 294 persons, including 280 pupils and 14 others, lost their lives in the explosion. Other sources placed the death toll at 297.

The bureau concluded after lengthy investigation, officials said, that the explosion resulted when a large volume of natural gas and air mixture which had accumulated "in an inadequately ventilated space under the building" was ignited by an arc or spark from an electric switch.

"The heating units in the school did not contribute to the ignition," the report said.

Rail Facilities For Bay Bridge

SACRAMENTO, (AP)—Earl Lee Kelly of the state department of public works announced award of two San Francisco bay bridge rail facilities contracts to Bartlett & Hill, San Francisco for $370,283 today.

The work involves constructing tracks and facilities for electric trains, on the main bridge and San Francisco loop, in one contract and similar work in the east bay yards, in the other.

Congress Warned On Fishing Japs

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The house merchant marine committee heard Representative Sirovich (D., N. Y.) suggest that airplanes and bombers be sent to Alaska to "get rid" of Japanese fishing boats.

The committee was considering legislation designed to protect Alaska's fishing industry from foreigners.

"It's time this pussyfooting with the Japanese is done with," Sirovich asserted.

COURT ENDS STRIKE OF FILM STAR

HOLLYWOOD. (AP)—Republic studio did a figurative handclapping of joy and prepared to welcome Cowboy Gene Autrey back to the corral upon learning that a court in Nashville, Tenn., had made permanent an injunction which will end Autrey's salary strike.

Autrey, No. 1 cowhand of the picture world, demanded more money for his services and, failing to receive it, left Hollywood on a theatrical tour of the south.

A week ago Republic, contending that Autrey had failed to live up to the terms of his contract, caught up with him in Tennessee and legally halted his appearances by obtaining a temporary injunction.

Autrey is said in Hollywood to be receiving a salary of about $1500 a week. He is paid by the picture and makes eight a year. A representative of Herbert J. Yates, head of Republic, said that Autrey is receiving "about four times more than his contract calls for."

SIMONE SIMON IN HOSPITAL

HOLLYWOOD. (AP)—Simone Simon, French movie star, is in a hospital today suffering from pneumonia.

Twentieth Century studio, where Simone was completing a picture, said that her physician reported she had a temperature of 103 degrees.

The actress has had a cold for two weeks, the studio added, but insisted on working daily to complete filming and recording of "Josette."

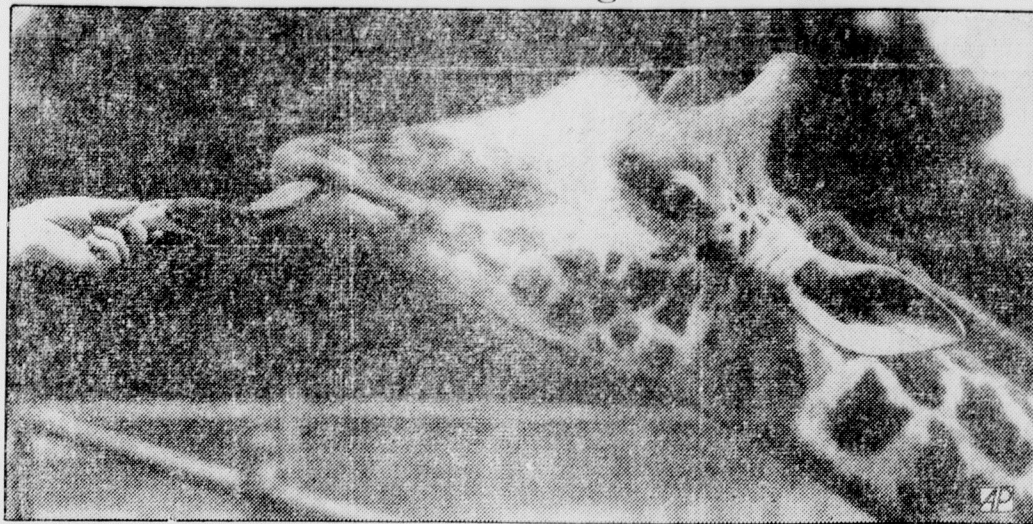

RAT-CATCHING FUNDS LOW

SAN PEDRO. (AP)—Federal funds with which a rat catching campaign has been waged in harbor communities during the past year have been exhausted, the harbor commission was advised today, after some 25,000 rodents met an untimely death.

While the harbor department provided the poison bait, 15 WPA rat catchers were paid $875 monthly from government funds. The work was conducted in San Pedro, Gardena, Wilmington and Harbor City.

The average elevation of Africa above sea level is 2000 feet.

The Reach That Brings the Bacon

Long tongue makes long reach for the long-necked giraffe at Toranga park zoo in Sydney, Australia, and the delicacy he so eagerly craves is a banana held in the hand of his keeper. The giraffe's usual menu includes leaves and twigs of trees. A banana is to a giraffe what a carrot is to a mounted cop's horse.

Naturalness Helps Speakers

By DALE CARNEGIE

I find in my public speaking classes that one of the most difficult things for the men to learn is something they should never have to think about: naturalness. These men sometimes struggle through several sessions before they find that naturalness is the easiest thing in the world to acquire. If they will but forget themselves, forget about the impression they are trying to make.

Dale Carnegie

I lunched with Charles M. Schwab one day last spring. He told me that when he was a comparatively young man he was invited to address the New England society. He had never made an after-dinner address at that time and he considered it quite a compliment.

When he arrived he discovered that Chauncey M. Depew, the famous after-dinner speaker, was also on the program. Depew was in the heyday of his fame. Schwab went over to Depew and said "Chauncey, after I have finished I want you to tell me the truth about my speech. A man's friends always compliment him, but I want you to tell me what is wrong with it and how I can improve it."

DEPEW ADVISES

After he finished speaking, Depew leaned over and said, "Charles, everything was wrong with your speech. You didn't do anything at all according to rule."

Depew continued: "But, don't change. You are natural; you are yourself; you are expressing your personality in your own individual way."

Schwab told me that he had never forgotten this advice. He has never tried to be anything but himself.

The next time you get to your feet before a group of men, bear in mind this experience of Charles M. Schwab. Be natural. How can you be natural? By the simplest method in the world—by forgetting yourself and remembering only the subject you are there to talk about.

We can all philosophize on what goes to make for a successful life, but the man who knows which key unlocked his door, is the one who can best advise.

Henry C. Frick, business man and philanthropist, who left a fortune of fifty million dollars to various charities, declared that to win the battle of life a man needs, in addition to whatever ability he possesses, courage, tenacity and deliberation.

Daniel Guggenheim, financier and philanthropist, also lists tenacity as a necessary quality for acquiring success. He states emphatically that without it no man can succeed.

Anyone of us can acquire tenacity, for it consists of nothing in the world but clinging to an idea you think is good.

THIRD CRASH FOR NAVY IN SIX MONTHS

SAN DIEGO. (AP)—The collision of two navy patrol bombing planes off Point Loma with a loss of 11 lives was the third disaster to planes of this type within the past six months, bringing the death toll to 24.

Six men were killed on the night of Aug. 23 when one of the giant planes crashed in San Diego bay. The plane, swooping down for a landing, hit the half submerged hulk of the abandoned whaling ship Narwhal.

Seven men were lost Jan. 5 when a bomber disappeared at sea about 200 miles northwest of San Diego. A gigantic five day search by two score warships and hundreds of planes failed to reveal any trace of the bomber or its crew.

FILM FIRM TELLS OF BANKRUPTCY

MADISON, Wis. (AP)—Glenn W. Stephens, Madison attorney who is a director of Condor Pictures, Inc., now undergoing federal court reorganization proceeding in Los Angeles, testified at a bankruptcy hearing that most of the film company's stock was sold in Wisconsin.

Stephens appeared before Miles C. Riley, federal referee in bankruptcy proceedings against B. E. Buckman & Co., Madison investment firm.

Stephens said he understood some $300,000 in Condor stock, which was underwritten by the Buckman company but was not registered for sale in Wisconsin, was outstanding last fall, shortly before creditors forced the company to suspend business.

The witness said he believed the Van Buren Film corporation, one of several companies united to form Condor Pictures, Inc., was a real asset and eventually would pay out to stockholders "twice as much as was paid for it."

FRUIT GROWERS JOIN IN FIGHT

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Western and Southern Fruit Growers has joined the American Newspaper Publishers' association in opposing a 15 per cent increase in railroad freight rates now under consideration by the interstate commerce commission.

Spokesmen for growers and shippers declared that an increase in rates would affect the marketing of western fruit and injure both the producers and the carriers.

The publishers' association said in a brief that an increase on the newspaper freight rate would cost the railroads $410,342 a year instead of increasing their revenue, and divert shipments to other forms of transportation.

Michigan Police Aid Snowbound

MARQUETTE, Mich. (AP)—Michigan state police and conservation officers labored today under extreme conditions to assist the dozens of persons snowbound in camps and homesteads in this vicinity.

A rescue squad of five troopers, traveling on snowshoes and pulling three toboggans loaded with supplies, started for the Cary Lumber camp, 30 miles northwest of Marquette. Earlier conservation officers got through and reported its eight residents safe but food supplies low.

Another rescue squad got through yesterday to the Makiela Lumber camp in which 75 men are living. All were reported safe.

State to Boost Frisco Through License Plates

Although formerly opposed, Ingels after conferences with Frank Y. McLaughlin, representing the exposition, agreed to have the 1939 plates made in blue and gold. Across the top of the plate will be the slogan "California World's Fair—1939."

"GAMEST GIRL" DIES

TOWNSEND NEWS, VIEWS

By WALTER R. KOBB

The Townsends of Orange county are shouting "Hurrah! Hurrah! At last the Santa Ana business men have listened to a Townsend speech. And the best part of it was they didn't know that the kind of talk being handed out to them by Senator George W. Rochester, of Los Angeles when he appeared before the Home Owned Business Association of Santa Ana was the same kind of philosophy which the Townsends have been feeding on for the last four years."

If anyone had told the business men that they were listening to the same kind of a talk which is spilled before Townsend audiences at almost every meeting they wouldn't have believed it. But never-the-less judging by The Journal's report of the speech and by other reports coming to this column the business men sure got an earful of Townsend logic.

Among the striking facts which the speaker drove home to his audience was that the cause of much of our national distress lies in the changes which have taken place in connection with our production methods. He was referring to the use of machine power in place of man power and pointed out that "the sweat of your brow is no longer a source of wealth." He charged this industrial change was congregating the nation's wealth into a few hands. This was resulting, he said, in a reduction of buying power at the very time when the power to produce had been stepped up to a new high.

Just as the Townsends do, the speaker pointed out the failure of both the Democratic party and the Republican one to solve the economic ills affecting the nation. They try, said he, to cure the effects instead of the cause which naturally results in failure. But the speaker really got down to facts which are basic to our troubles when he declared a new monetary system is needed. "So long as we allow the 16,000 privately owned banks, having 500 billions more in credit than in currency, to regulate our monetary system, we can never allow all to participate in the wealth of our country. A new medium of exchange in conformity to our ability to produce is the answer," said Senator Rochester.

The Townsend theory of economics would only differ slightly with this outburst of the business men's speaker. They agree that credit money utilized by privately owned banks, headed by the twelve Federal Reserve Banks, also privately owned, to expand or contract the total volume of money in circulation as suits their particular interests can not be expected to work out satisfactorily in wealth distribution. The Townsends do not contend however, for a new medium of exchange but only for a new method of circulating the medium of exchange already in use.

One of these days the business men of the nation are going to wake up to the fact that the "National Townsend Recovery Plan" is not a lot of hooey, but is a sensible, sound, practical solution to the nation's economic ills. For expressed in brief, the Townsend plan is nothing more and nothing less, than a modern adaptation of economics to a streamlined machine production age.

The nation is filled with chaos as the Senator suggested. The storm clouds gather over the land which are ominous with threat to destroy the Republic and its form of government. Will the business men of Santa Ana settle back into a complacency after hearing the Senator's speech or will it goad them into action? Or will they become crusaders for the cause of economic freedom while they still have the use of a free press and the right to free speech?

Santa Ana Club No. 10 meets in Townsend hall at 7:30 tonight. 50 West Fourth street. Orange Club No. 2 says Mrs. Carrie Stevens, secretary, meets in the Townsend club building at 131 South Gassell at 7:30 tonight, and E. G. Warner, publicity chairman, says Santa Ana Club No. 11 will meet at 7:30 tonight in the Franklin school at 1512 West Fourth street.

PLAYRIGHT DIES

OMAHA, Neb. (AP)—Mrs. Martin H. Harris, 61, author of several short plays, is dead of a heart ailment. Her play, "Just Boys," which she wrote with Mrs. Katherine Browning Miller, was produced several years ago at the old Princess theater at Chicago. Her husband, a son and daughter survive.

Her Place in the Sun

It was such an easy job for this Boston beauty that she took her knitting along because she didn't want to get her nice pretty bathing suit wet. It's what they are wearing anyway down Florida-way.

Climaxing a four weeks study of Shakespeare, Mrs. Mabel Budd's L9D English class submitted many interesting projects recently. Included among these projects were illustrations of characters and staging models of the Globe theater, oral reports on various topics, drawings of costumes, dolls dressed according to Elizabethan fashions, and other authentic replicas.

The most widely illustrated play was "The Taming of the Shrew."

Fourteen members of Norman Hicks' Low nine electric shop class made an excursion to his home at 1119 North Lowell street, for the purpose of inspecting his home-built amateur radio station, W6JMA. There Hicks explained various instruments, both transmitting and receiving, to the spectators.

Hicks has one 53 foot mast, and three antennae. He has three separate transmitters operating on 5, 10 and 75 metres.

While using the 10 metre band, they picked up W5WRV, Shreveport, Louisiana, and W6VXT, Dwight, Illinois. W6IOX, of Santa Barbara, and W6CDO, of Yucaipa, were reached on the 75 metre band.

Polishing off a semester's work, final tests were given to students of Mrs. Lucy Wright's and Mrs. Vivian Meeks' eighth and ninth grade typing classes. Many large and small certificates, and two bronze pins were awarded to Jack Alliniao and Carl Downs, whose record won 51 words-per-minute.

In the eighth grade beginners, 22 small certificates were awarded. ificates were Winifred Pearcey, Carmon Monreal, Vincent Castrinta, Bob Vassum, Kenny Dakin, Lloyd Grover, Barbara Hillyard, and Betty Jean McMillen. Billy Earle, Betty McMillen, and Inetta Woodward received large certificates.

Small certificates for this class were given to Mario Loya, Annie Cazares, Jack Corrales, Carl Downs, Rita Fitz, Wallace Amling, and Bob Pierce.

Russell Lutes of the Identification Bureau of the sheriff's office was the featured speaker at the combined meeting of the Willard and Lathrop Hi-Y club Thursday, Jan. 20, at the Y. M. C. A. Lutes talked on "Finger-Printing." He stated, "Other students will be added to the club later." Present members include Marjorie Adkinson, Patricia Paul, Bill Fletcher, David Hearle, and Bill Brown who will present the play "Two's Company" in the near future. Members working on the play, "Whole Smith Family," are Anna May Burks, Lucille Mendenhall, Betty Jo Swafford, Patricia McGee, and Jean Withall.

Combined boys glee club, directed by Herbert Michel, will present a program next Tuesday at Lincoln school, their numbers being "Water Boy," "My Bonnie Lass," "Stars of the Winter Night" and "Anchored."

The glee club, which is one of the largest in Southern California, now has 76 members, according to Michel. In the near future the boys will elect officers and give a party for new members, a definite date to be decided later.

A new display for the craft showcase has been received from the Dudley Studios in Los Angeles. It consists of sugar and cream sets in modern designs made by Willard students.

The pottery was made by the eighth grade craft class while the pewter and copper projects were made by the ninth grade girls. Miss Helen Glancy, craft instructor, announced that turquoise pottery is the most popular this year.

Dorothy Edwards and Pauline Klech made graceful flower vases. Other displays include an unusual six inch pewter dish made by Eva Cummings, a collection of pewter pieces by Jand Doyle, and a pottery contribution by Marvis Swanson.

John McBride, Jaysee student, gave an informal talk on his travels to the South Seas, at the last ninth grade assembly, sponsored by Miss Vanehe Plumb and Mrs. Maurine Scott in the Willard auditorium.

The advanced orchestra directed by Herbert Michel, played a novelty arrangement of "Sailors Hornpipe" and "Dance Circassienne" by Dillies.

The Senior Girls Glee club presented a program of songs under the direction of Miss Helen Glancy singing "Doona" and "In the Green Cathedral." Patsy Sheppard sang "The Desert Song" and "From the Land of the Sky Blue Water."

Informality was the keynote of the fifth Willard P-T. A. meeting held Tuesday, January 25, in the school library with Mrs. Jack Mendenhall presiding. Questions answered by Miss Vanehe E. Plumb, Willard counselor, and Lyle B. Mitchell, principal.

The entertainment for the afternoon, in charge of Mrs. Malcolm Macurda, program chairman, consisted of musical selections presented by Willard students. Lucille Mendenhall, accompanied by Patricia McGee, presented "Sylvia" and "We Remember," cello solos. Patricia McGee gave two piano solos, "Russian Romance" and "Mazurka." Dorothy and Phyllis Sullivan accompanied by his sis-

FARM BILL NEARING PASSAGE

WASHINGTON. (AP)—Administration leaders predict that congress would enact the compromise farm bill next week, despite flurries of criticism expected on some provisions.

The measure, designed to stabilize agriculture along lines of the ever normal granary advocated by Secretary Wallace, was completed last night by a dozen senators and representatives.

They had been assigned the task five weeks ago of combining separate farm bills passed by the two houses of congress during the special session. The legislation provides for control of wheat, corn, cotton, rice and tobacco. The bill will have priority when it is submitted to the senate and house.

Just before the conferees reached their agreement, they approved a provision which Senator Smith (D-S.C.) said would hasten payment of part of the $130,000,000 bonus voted by congress on the 1937 cotton crop for growers who complied with the 1935 program.

Smith said cotton growers could turn over some 5,000,000 bales of cotton on which the government has made loans and collect 2 cents a pound, or about $10 a bale, of the 1937 bonus.

The government, he said, must hold this cotton off the market unless prices climb before July 31, 1937, when it can be released gradually over a three year period.

Otherwise, conferees said, they left unchanged provisions previously accepted for the five major crops.

VASSAR CO-ED IS SUICIDE

OKLAHOMA CITY. (AP)—Marian Trosper, 22-year-old Vassar college student, a physician present here, was found dead today on the floor of her parents' palatial home, and Coroner Ben Lafon returned a verdict of suicide.

Near her body was a .38 caliber revolver.

Miss Trosper did not return to Vassar after the holidays because of ill health, a physician said. He said she had suffered a nervous breakdown.

Before going to Vassar, Miss Trosper attended Leland Stanford university. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Trosper, two brothers and three sisters survive.

Queen, Prince Argue Over Baby's Name

AMSTERDAM. The Netherlands. (AP)—A difference between Queen Wilhelmina and her son-in-law, Prince Bernhard, over the naming of Crown Princess Juliana's new baby, Princess Beatrix, will become a subject of discussion.

Reliable sources said Wilhelmina consented to the name Beatrix, which means "bringer of happiness and peace" but which never before had been used by the House of Orange, on condition that the child become Queen Wilhelmina if she should succeed to the throne.

The baby, born Monday, is next to her mother in the line of succession.

ter Eloise, rendered two violin solos.

Names of the first six leaders of the tennis ladder were revealed here today by Herbert Michel, sponsor. Ed Scott, Ted Finster, Joel Hayes, Jack Baldwin, Pat Mercier, and Harold Yost hold top honors on the ladder in the order named.

After elimination the following also still retain places on the ladder. Jolly Jerome, Bob Jacobs, Roger Lowe, Ed Robinson, Eugene Murphy, Robert Gorton, Mike McBride, Elton Denner, and Paul Higashi.

The eighth grade girls' glee club sang several numbers for the Herbert Hoover grammar school this week. Miss Esther Jean Davis is director.

The ninth grade girls' glee club is debating for corduroy or silk blouses for new uniforms.

Mr. Fred Erier, of the Chevrolet Motor company, presented four "Jan Andy" pictures in an assembly held for the seventh and eighth grades during the sixth period. The topic of the pictures were Lubrication of the Car, Body Design, Differential of an Automobile, and Safety Devices.

The L9-C English class, under the direction of Mrs. Maurine Scott, have six conversation panels, which were given by the pupils of that class. They include: "Student Government," "Teachers," "Books," "Magazines," "Moving Pictures," and "Athletics." Each of these subjects was discussed by groups of boys and girls.

There are only a few weeks of speedball left, according to Miss Wyllys Anderson. The after school games will be between the three grades and the team winning the most games will be speedball champion.

Jessie Mae Miles was elected president and Marjorie Adams, vice president of the Eighth Grade Girl Reserves at their last meeting. Other officers elected were Rosemary Anderson, secretary; Mona Mae Rhinehart, treasurer; and Louise Kenyon, inter-club council representative.

CHAIRMAN OF LABOR EXPLAINS

WASHINGTON, (AP)—J. Warren Madden, chairman of the national labor relations board, asserts his agency was neither biased or incompetent, or had "illusions about remaking the social order."

Madden's statement was made to the senate judiciary committee which is considering a request from Senator Burke (D-Neb.) to investigate "widespread reports" the board was biased and incompetent in administering the Wagner labor act.

Madden said Burke was basing his criticisms of the board on "a supply of misinformation, half truths and trivialities."

The labor board had denied the charges Burke laid before the committee and maintained that employees and employers alike have benefited from the board's administration of the Wagner labor act.

"We have had no starchy-eyed illusions about re-making the social order," he told the committee. "Our charter has been the statute itself. Our ambition has been to an orderly, workmanlike, professional job within the limitations of that charter."

"We have seen millions of American workmen avail themselves of a freedom they never had before."

DEATH SEALS VICTIM'S STORY

SAN FRANCISCO, (AP)—Death today silenced the story of Lloyd J. Myers, who police said was pitched from a moving car in Golden Gate park last night and run over by a second speeding machine. Neither car stopped.

Based on accounts of three witnesses, patrolman Edward L. Woods reported the case "aggravated assault." Myers fell to the pavement from the driver's side of a black coupe, Woods said, and a grey sedan, following closely, ran over him.

Myers, who leaves a wife, Pearl, living in (2900 W. 15th St.) Los Angeles, and an 11-year-old son here, died a few hours later of skull fracture and other injuries. He was a street car motorman.

(In this department from time to time will be run contributed verse ranging (we hope) from doggerel to poetry. In the words of the standard magazine rejection slip—Rejection does not imply lack of merit—and neither does publication.)

(The following sentiment was inspired by the pet Pekingese of Mrs. Sara Johnston Haddon.)

"TO THE PRINCESS AH MI"
She has coat of brown and a very white shirt,
And tosses her head just like a fillet,
A long, willowy tail but a very short nose,
And always is noticed wherever she goes,
The little Princess Ah Mi Haddon.

A very dear little Pekingese dog,
To whom I give love and care;
I do not turn 'round or take a step
Without I want her there,
The little Princess Ah Mi Haddon.

And if I hurt her by stepping on her,
And cause her to howl and cry,
I gather her up into my arms,
And the tears come into my eyes,
The little Princess Ah Mi Haddon.

Never speaks of my faults, even for my own good,
Nor reminds me of any misdeeds;
But always most lovingly understands,
With a beautiful dog-like creed,
The little Princess Ah Mi Haddon.

This Pekingese treasure, she wags her tail,
And looks with her big brown eyes;
And when I am blue, she licks my face,
And to comfort me she tries,
The little Princess Ah Mi Haddon.

This lick on my face is just a reward
For being good to her,
And I know that she loves me
With all her heart,
The little Princess Ah Mi Haddon.

ETERNAL SPRING
The winds are blowing, winter is going,
And Eternal Spring is born again;
Over the meadows man is sowing,
And birds are singing on lovers' lane.

The sun is kissing the sleeping flowers,
And north go ducks and cackling geese,
Pluvius sends us his golden showers,
And butterflies are flirting with the bees.

The wren he drifts from tree to tree,
And soon will find his waiting mate;
The maidens' hearts like roses be,
They yearn, they smile, and wait.

The springtime breezes will inspire
The ailing heart and worried mind;
Each soul may feel the magic fire,
And Eternal Spring in his nature find.

"FREE PARKING TO OUR PATRONS"

CHINESE URGES PEACE IN RELIGION

CHICAGO, (AP)—A Chinese layman, T. Z. Koo, told the United Methodist Council on the Future of Faith and Service that religious folk of the world must adopt "a positive attitude in working toward peace."

He spoke to some 3200 registered delegates at the opening of a three day meeting celebrating the forthcoming union of Methodism's three branches.

"Most peace groups," said Koo, once China's national advisor on railways, "put all their eggs in one basket and in the United States it is the basket of neutrality."

The churches must recognize, Koo said, that when incidents arise between countries which are not working positively toward peace, their peoples turn their thoughts toward rearmament.

President Roosevelt in a letter of greeting to the meeting said "I want to reiterate the belief I have already affirmed many times that there is not a problem, social, political or economic that would not find solution in the fire of a religious awakening."

The council represented 8,000,000 communicants and 12,000,000 additional adherents of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, the Methodist Protestant church, divided more than 100 years ago but which have voted to reunite.

CLEAN UP CAMPAIGN
A campaign for cleaner halls has been launched by the boys' and girls' service clubs, and the inter club council. The campaign will continue for the entire second semester in a continuous effort to improve the condition in the halls of the new school buildings.

The drive has the support of Mr. Robert Farrar, assistant vice principal and adviser for student government organizations, who stated, "We must ourselves, individually, strive to make our campus clean."

SCHOOL WEEKLY
The Generator, the high school weekly publication, has recently joined the National Scholastic Press Association and displayed the emblem of membership for the first time in the last edition.

The National Scholastic Press Association is the oldest and largest of all such associations. Any school publication may become a member.

A bound record of all copies of last semester's Generator have been sent to the Association for criticism and honor rating. Besides this service, the Generator will receive each month a booklet, "Hints," on new trends and research findings in journalism.

ASSEMBLY
This week's assembly at high school combined several features. First, in order, came presentation of gold footballs to the varsity football team and the managers. A total of thirty-one lettermen received the awards.

Following a brief address by Lynn H. Crawford, principal, new officers for the semester were introduced. Ben Blue, the outgoing president, presented old officers and gave the gavel of office to the Police Corral Labor Rioters

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—Slowly and methodically police continued today their roundup of alleged labor terrorists.

Keegan said further alleged confessions had been obtained, including attempts to bomb vessels in an inter-union jurisdictional dispute.

High School Notes

MARGARET SCHMITZ
Karl Christ was appointed chairman of the self government committee by Larry Stump, recently elected student body president, with the consent of Lynn H. Crawford, principal. Karl received the appointment on the basis of leadership and character.

The four other offices on the self-government committee are held by George Higashi and Wayne Piper, boys' self-government; and Pat Emison and Harriet Spicer, girls' self-government. They were chosen in a recent election.

Karl, present chairman of the self-government committee, transferred to Santa Ana High school from Orange this year. He is active in public speaking affairs and other school groups.

ORDER COMMITTEE
Members of the student order committee for this semester have been chosen by Mrs. T. P. McKee and Karl Christ, new chairman of the self-government committee.

The new committee consists of Don Mozley, John Henderson, Ben Steffens, John Geddes, Alan Hollingsworth, and Robert Heath.

This semester only six members will make up the committee; all must be boys. Previously members included eight members, consisting of both boys and girls.

"The duty of the student order committee," declared Mr. McKee, "is to preserve order at all times and to check the regularity on the grounds."

ICEBREAKER HUNTS PLANE
MOSCOW, (AP)—The Soviet icebreaker Taimyr sailed from Murmansk today to rescue the four Russian scientists of the "north pole camp" drifting precariously on a small block of ice in Arctic seas off Greenland.

Murmansk is nearly 1000 miles from the position last reported by the campers, who said yesterday their refuge, a silk tent with an emergency radio mast for a tent pole, was perched on an ice base only 1000 by 160 feet, a fragment of their original floe.

The government declined to say whether word had been received from the campers today.

The Taimyr carried three planes lashed to her decks to prevent washing away in storms.

Exchange Seats At Record Low
NEW YORK, (AP)—A membership on the New York stock exchange was sold for $59,000, the lowest price since 1918 and off $6000 from the previous transfer.

This compares with a record price of $625,000 reached in 1929. That price, however, was paid when each membership was given a right to one-fourth of an additional membership in connection with a 25 per cent increase in memberships that year. After allowing for these rights, the record membership prices was equivalent to $500,000.

Great Quake Hits New Guinea

MANILA, (AP)—Seismic experts here said today a great earthquake occurred in western New Guinea Tuesday and Wednesday.

The Rev. William Repetti, chief of the seismic and magnetic division of the Philippine weather bureau, said the position of the shock was determined by data from Shanghai, Hongkong and Manila observers. The distance from Manila was 1425 miles.

There was no systematic newspaper reporting until the beginning of the 19th century.

LONG BEACH PETITION ANSWERED

SAN FRANCISCO. (AP)—At the urgent plea of the city of Long Beach, the state supreme court has agreed to hear and decide the question whether the state or the city owned rich oil deposits beneath Long Beach tide land property.

The city's petition pointed out that private individuals who have lost no time in sinking wells adjacent to the city's holdings are rapidly draining away the oil, while the two branches of government, both representing the public, are deadlocked over ownership rights.

A superior court restraining order in Long Beach on a taxpayer's suit had shut down four wells on city property, the petition stated, and attorneys for the city contended that the regular process of litigation through the lower and appellate courts would mean complete loss of the oil to the public.

D. A. Marshall, Long Beach port manager, had refused to advertise for bids to drill on the city property, on the grounds that the state and not the city owned mineral rights.

The supreme court issued today a writ of mandate directing Marshall to show cause March 3 in Los Angeles before the court why he should not advertise for bids at once.

JAYSEE ENROLLS 740 STUDENTS

Registrar Mabel G. Whiting, of Santa Ana Junior college, reports that enrollment figures reveal that 740 students have signed for classes, registration being held Monday and Tuesday for sophomores and freshmen. Late registration of new students will continue next week.

Last semester total registration reached a new high at the jaysee when 835 were enrolled. More are expected to sign up for classes when the new semester is well under way.

Many Orange county communities are represented by students attending the college, as well as out-of-state cities.

The men and bloodhounds are attached to the "Black Horse Troopers," a part of New York state police, who patrol their beat on snowshoes and horseback. Just 10 miles from the international boundary and Quebec, the Black Horse Troopers preserve the peace in a tradition akin to that of Canada's "Mounties."

WEBB PRAISES CIVIC GUIDES

LOS ANGELES. (AP)—U. S. Webb, state attorney general who recently announced he would not be a candidate for re-election next term, says crime is decreasing in California.

"People are becoming more cognizant of the fact that crime has not been crushed the way it should be. It is a healthy sign to see civic committees spring up, to take an interest in the abatement of crime," he said.

HENS LAY COLORED EGGS

ARCOLA, Ill. (AP)—With Easter 72 days off, Farmer George Black started taking orders today from persons who want eggs with a colored yolk.

Black said he had two hens on a special diet, and within a 10-day period they can lay eggs with a yolk of most any desired color. And the chicken specialist knows he really has something after long research.

"There is no difference in taste," Black said, "and the eggs can be eaten without danger of poisoning. They add color, too, when used as a garnish."

The coloring, he explained, was produced by feeding a harmless dye to the hens.

The only special color in stock now is grass green, but Black expects to step up production with the approach of Easter Sunday—April 17.

Cecil Gallant and three companions had started out to search for the linemen. The storm increased and a forest crew began to hunt for all six men.

SURTAX RATE GETS VIEWS OF HOUSE

WASHINGTON. (AP)—Chairman Doughton (D-N.C.) said house ways and means committee Democrats have discussed the possibility of modifying the 20 per cent surtax on closely held corporations—the most controversial feature of a proposed tax revision program.

Opponents of the levy, he said, suggested alternatives in general terms and will be permitted to clarify them.

One possibility, the chairman asserted, is the tightening up of a provision in existing law for penalty taxes on corporations which accumulate surpluses improperly.

A ways and means subcommittee recommended a special tax on corporations controlled by a family or a few individuals as a means of reaching firms used for avoidance of high individual income taxes.

Critics contend it would penalize bona fide companies along with those used for tax avoidance.

Doughton said the surtax might impose some hardships, but no tax law ever was written without creating hardship cases.

WITNESSES RIDICULE VICE MOVE

LOS ANGELES. (AP)—Members of the assembly committee investigating vice are in a dither after hearing that a prospective witness, a woman, suggested that they "go take a run around the block."

Process servers reported that they tried to serve Miss Minette Weinberg with a subpoena. She tossed it in the gutter and made her suggestion, they said.

Henry F. Meehan, committee member, has turned over to federal officials a letter in which unidentified persons threatened to take him for a "one-way ride" if he did not withdraw from the vice investigation.

Meehan said also that "pressure" had been brought to bear upon his wife in Oakland, Calif.

The committee heard no witnesses yesterday, out of respect to the mother of Speaker William Moseley Jones, chairman of the committee.

The committee will resume its sessions Monday.

Artist

The little lady who is featured with Bing Crosby in "Pennies From Heaven" will be seen in person at Walker's tonight.

Walker's theater will tonight present Miss Edith Fellows in person on the stage, along with several other entertainers and the regular screen program, "Love, Live and Learn," featuring Robert Montgomery and Rosalind Russell, and "Thoroughbreds Don't Cry," with Mickey Rooney and Judy Garland.

Little Miss Fellows, who was featured in the Bing Crosby picture, "Pennies From Heaven," and who is soon to be seen in her first starring role, in the Columbia picture, "Little Miss Roughneck," has proven on numerous occasions that she is just as entertaining on the stage as she is on the screen. Her monologues and her delightful singing have so endeared her to

SHIP CONTROL REITERATED

WASHINGTON. (AP)—Joseph P. Kennedy, retiring chairman of the maritime commission, terms government ownership of the American merchant fleet inevitable.

Kennedy told the senate commerce committee, in testimony made public last night, that he held this opinion despite his personal opposition to government ownership.

Most merchant ships now operating under the American flag, he said, are relics of the ship building boom during the World war.

RELIEF ASSURED
WASHINGTON. (AP)—The labor relations board has ruled the Vegetable Oil Products Co., Inc., Los Angeles, could not deduct relief allowances from the back pay of reinstated workers.

To further entertain the friends of Edith, Walker's have enlisted the assistance of Al Romaine, well known Hollywood impresario, who specializes in stage productions suitable for the whole family. He arranged to have "Jo-Jo" the clown, a well known vaudeville entertainer, along with his company of "dancing dolls." The Hughes Quartette, young entertainers known throughout Southern California for their radio and screen appearances will also be on the evening program, along with Joe Williams, a lightning-fast dancer from Harlem.

There will be no increase in prices for this special entertainment which will be presented in addition to the double-feature program, "Live, Love and Learn" and "Thoroughbreds Don't Cry."

EL DON'S STAFF TO HOLD PARTY

El Don's staff of editorial writers will forget copy reading and editing tonight when its members journey to Los Angeles to attend a theater party.

Each year the paper honors its editors with the party. The staff will be accompanied by John H. McCoy, journalism adviser, and Mrs. McCoy; and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Williams, printing director of the college Fine Arts Press.

Those making the trip are Vic Rowland, editor; Eleanor Brady, society editor; Jack Gardner, sports editor; Oscar Lieffers, feature editor; Ed Velarde, copyreader; Franklin Guthrie, advertising manager; Bob Warren, circulation manager; and Dave Welsh, assistant advertising manager.

'Wildcat' Bus Probe Opens

LOS ANGELES. (AP)—The state railroad commission continued today a hearing on operation of alleged "wildcat" buses after taking testimony that passengers are transferred from car to car at the convenience of drivers, or are made to wait while additional bookings are sought.

A. D. Barry, who testified he owned five large cars, estimated his gross business at about $400 a month. He said his usual charge is $4 for a trip to San Francisco. Ray Hatler, another witness, said his office is a parked car with a sign on it. John F. Kelly, who testified he had been a "booker" for 19 years, said he obtained passengers from all walks of life.

Relief Milk Gift Believed Poison

SAN FRANCISCO. (AP)—Dr. C. A. Rethers of Central Emergency hospital reported today that powdered skimmed milk from the city relief stores, mixed with cornstarch, apparently poisoned Antonio Barcelo, 45, WPA worker, and six members of his family.

Rushed to the hospital when the eldest son, Edmund, 15, found all his brothers and sisters violently ill, members of the family were treated by Dr. Rethers and were sufficiently recovered to go home today. Edmund had not eaten the mixture.

Waterfront Labor Promised Hearing

LOS ANGELES. (AP)—Dr. Towne Nylander, regional director of the NLRB, announced he was informed from Washington headquarters the various petitions of Southern California locals of the ILWU, CIO affiliate, to be recognized as sole bargaining agent in dealing with the Waterfront Employers association, would be reviewed and heard together by the board this month in San Francisco.

20,000 JAPS DIE
TOKYO. — General Genzo Sugiyama, minister of war, told a parliamentary committee that about 20,000 Japanese soldiers had been killed in the seven-month-old Chinese-Japanese war.

SOUTH SEAS RACE BUILDS OWN ISLANDS

URU, Solomon Islands (American Wire)—New light has just been thrown on one of the strangest peoples on earth—the Salt Water people of the South seas.

Known to the islanders but generally unknown to science is this strange race which—imitating the coral—builds its own islands. A study of the race has just been made by the world explorer, John W. Vandercook, and included in his thrilling volume of ocean travel, "Dark Islands" (Harper and Bros.).

Despite the fact that there are 10,000 islands in the South seas, many of them uninhabited, this strange race has gone to the reefs which fill the South seas, and by dint of hard work, have piled up lumps of coral and sand to make new islands, on which they live. According to Vandercook, because of the monumental labor it takes to make or expand these islands, they are more crowded than New York slums.

These thousands of Salt Water people on their artificial islands are great fishermen, and make their additional living by handling cargo for all the steamers that come to the Solomon islands. Proud, they will not "sign on" for labor in other islands, and are a happy, industrious race, despite the fact that they miss the traditional charm of the South seas—the tropic fruits, palm trees, rippling brooks and quiet island pools.

HOUSE ASKS MILLIONS

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The house appropriations committee recommends a $27,638,524 deficiency appropriation to finance various governmental activities for the remainder of the fiscal year.

The recommendation earmarked $19,200,000 for the Federal Land banks and the Federal Farm Mortgage corporation on account of the reduction of interest rates on farm mortgages.

The committee approved a $50,000 appropriation for the United States Construction Sequelentennial commission, fixed the date for termination of its activities on Dec. 31, 1938, a year earlier than scheduled, and authorized use of $87,580 received from sale of its booklets and other material to pay commission bills.

Cafes With Girls Denied Licenses

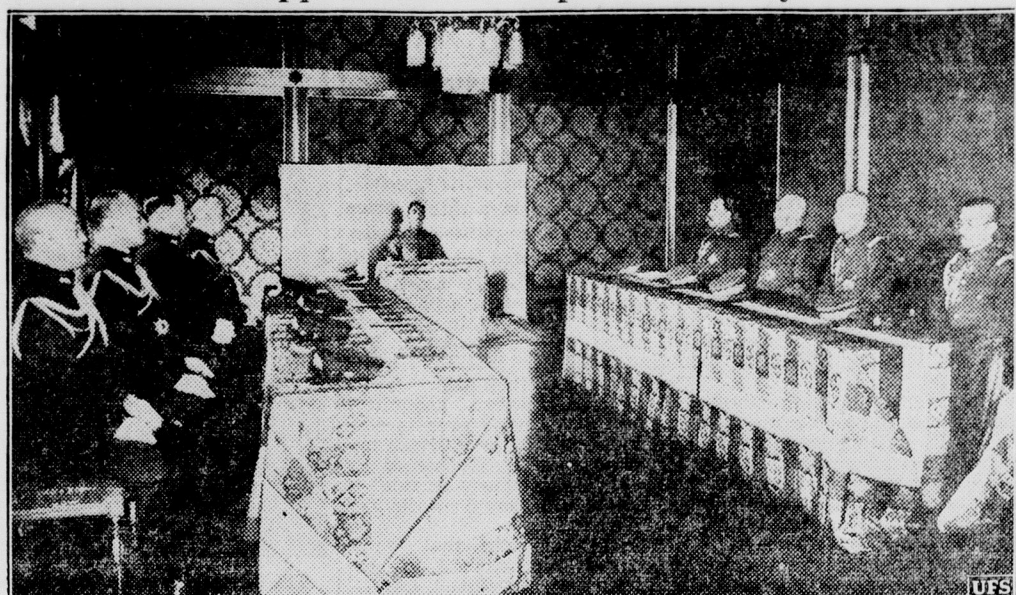

LOS ANGELES, (AP)—The board of equalization has denied liquor licenses to 11 downtown cafes on the ground girls were employed in the places to solicit patrons to buy drinks.

Merle Templeton, chief liquor control officer here, said denial of these licenses was not only a punishment but "a warning to others on the borderline that their licenses will be revoked if they do not immediately clean up their places."

CAR STOLEN

Theft of a car belonging to Jildo Esparaza, Westminster, from Third and Spurgeon streets in Santa Ana was reported to police yesterday. The car reportedly was stolen Wednesday night.

Nippons Hold Imperial Parley

Only three times in the history of Japan has the imperial council met with Emperor Hirohito to discuss grave problems. Here is the recent Tokyo meeting, with Hirohito at head of the council table. The council agreed to carry on the Chinese war, recognizing pro-Japanese administrations only.

LUPE LEAVES FOR BROADWAY

HOLLYWOOD, (AP)—A Broadway-bound train widened the distance today between Lupe Velez and Johnny Weissmuller, but as Lupe explained it:

"Maybe John-n-ee and I—we stay married so long because we are separated so much."

Lupe, off for New York to take Talullah Bankhead's vacated role in a Cole Porter musical, "By Candlelight," delayed the train's departure seven minutes.

First, she couldn't find her drawing room, then she had to find a box in which to carry her dog, "Butch."

Aboard at last, she kissed her swimmer husband farewell and boasted to a reporter:

"We have set a Hollywood record, yes? We have been married five and one-half years."

Inquest Pending For Car Victim

An inquest was pending in Los Angeles today into the death of A. L. Nelson, 71, father of Mrs. Carl Stein of Santa Ana.

Mr. Nelson was struck by a car Monday evening at Seventh and Westlake in Los Angeles and remained unconscious from a fractured skull until yesterday morning, when he died. Surviving are the widow, Mrs. Hannah Nelson, and Mrs. Stein, 2133 Greenleaf street. Funeral services, to be conducted in Forest Lawn Memorial park, will be announced later.

Passport of 1844 Wins Pension

LOS ANGELES, (AP)—Back in 1844 old age pensions were not a live issue, but a passport of that date has just won a pension for an 81-year-old woman.

The passport was issued to her parents, en route to Syria as missionaries. On their return in 1856 the present pensioner was born on the high seas, and the passport is the only document she has to prove the story of her American parentage.

It was accepted by Rex Thomson, county superintendent of charities.

Sentenced

Reno E. Stitley, former chief of the voucher unit of the national parks service, given a prison sentence of 6 to 12 years and fined $36,000, on conviction in Washington of embezzling $84,000 of CCC funds. He is shown entering the district jail after his trial in district court. Stitley's confessed thefts over 3 1/2 years may lead to several investigations.

WILL REVEALS DEATH PACT

SANTA MONICA, (AP)—A strange death pact that would have taken his wife's estate from him if he married, was revealed when the will of Patrick S. Martin, of Brentwood, was filed for probate.

The pact was the will of Mrs. Martin who died more than two years ago. It read in part:

"If my husband marries again all property belonging to me to be taken from him and given at once to my sister, Mrs. George Peete Davis. I do not propose to keep another woman on my earnings."

As long as Martin lived after his wife's death he remained unmarried and enjoyed the income from her estate.

His estate was estimated in excess of $20,000.

Grafted Eyelids Getting Stronger

KINGSTON, Ontario, Canada. (American Wire)—Kenneth Donnelly's grafted eyelids are developing satisfactorily and should work satisfactorily in about three years, Dr. L. Noble Armstrong, eye specialist, said today. Skin for the eyelids of the 14-year-old youth lost because of burns was taken from his legs. The muscles are at the stage usually reached by a child 10 months old.

SHIPS CAUSE LOSS, TESTIFY

SAN FRANCISCO, (AP)—Federal Maritime Commissioner Thomas M. Woodward took under advisement today the testimony of almost 100 witnesses that Northern California business and industry had suffered great loss because of the decline of west coast shipping.

The commission's board of inquiry completed a hearing in San Francisco yesterday and Woodward planned a tour of the San Francisco bay port facilities today before going to the Pacific Northwest for further hearings.

Mark H. Gates, secretary of the board of state harbor commissioners, appeared at the hearing yesterday and spoke for San Francisco. He said the lack of frequent and regular steamship service at the present time had damaged the port and was injuring business and industry. Oakland witnesses gave similar testimony.

Fugitive Slave House to Be In State Park

RIPLEY, O. (AP)—Historic "Eliza House," famous as the first station in the "underground railroad" of fugitive slaves escaping from the south, soon will be part of a state park.

Col. Al Hatfield, present owner, announced he had accepted a $5000 offer of the Ohio State Archaeological society for the house and grounds.

The house became a refuge for slaves during the height of the abolitionist struggle in ante-bellum days. It was the residence of the Rev. John Rankin, pastor of the Ripley Presbyterian church and one of the leading abolitionists of southern Ohio.

As the fugitives crossed the Ohio river, they were secreted there until they could be taken to the next "station" on the road to Canada and freedom.

'Militarized' Chess New German Fad

BERLIN, (AP)—A new "militarized" kind of chess is becoming popular in Germany.

It is called "tactics" and its avowed purpose is "to develop a purely military way of thinking."

The game is played between "red" and "blue" forces on a board of 121 squares instead of the traditional 64, and the pieces symbolize the various arms: infantry, cavalry, artillery and air force. The "king" on both sides is an eagle to checkmate which is the aim of opposing players.

Pieces can be moved along diagonals indicating strategic lines such as highways and railroads, complicated by "barred" areas representing lakes or seas.

Germany obtained protectorates over Togoland and the Cameroon district of Africa in 1883.

GOLF DELAYS COURT HEARING

MACON, Ga. (AP)—Three members of a unique golf four-some returned to federal court today to finish the matter of Bobby Jones' suit against the government for a some $53,000 rebate on income taxes.

The three were: Bobby Jones, the golfing plaintiff.

Federal Judge Bascom Deaver, who is hearing the case.

Mills Kitchens, special assistant to the United States attorney general representing the government.

The fourth player was a Macon man widely known as "Uncle Joe" Nee.

Following yesterday's opening testimony given by Jones and his father, Robert P. Jones, the court practically adjourned to the golf course for the afternoon. Scores were not announced.

Researcher Uses Films to Study Ancient Books

CLAREMONT, Calif. (AP)—Harold Davis of Pomona college does not own many rare books, but he can read them to his heart's content.

In doing research on work of English translators, Davis has recorded on moving picture film the countless pages of many ancient books. When he wants to refer to one he merely flashes it on a screen and studies it at his leisure.

The books themselves are accessible only in widely scattered libraries.

Darned 'Hoppers' Are At It Again

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP)—Grasshoppers threaten Minnesota with millions of dollars of crop damage this year, says A. G. Ruggles, state entomologist.

Southern Minnesota, he reports, shows the heaviest infestation of grasshopper eggs ever recorded. More than one-third the crop acreage in three counties have light to heavy deposits of eggs, with others ranging down to seven per cent.

Although the situation is such that with no control methods crop losses would range up to 50 per cent in the worst of infested areas, Ruggles says the farmers have been organized and are prepared to keep losses to a minimum.

The entomologist puts last year's crop losses in Minnesota from grasshoppers at $1,002,413.

British Sailor Likes U. S. Navy

BREMERTON, (American Wire)—"I am an able seaman in the New Zealand division of the royal navy and am finishing my time early in 1938. If it is possible, I would like to join the American naval forces at that time."

That is the gist of a letter written in a charming old-country hand studied here today by the recruiting officer. It was from Charles Olsen, A. B., at present attached to the H. M. S. flagship, permanently moored at Portsmouth, England, as a training ship.

Acknowledging the high standard of British seamanship, the recruiting officer nevertheless had to deny the application because Sailor Olsen is not an American citizen.

Boy Stole When 'Devil Said To'

LONDON, (American Wire)—The devil prompted him to steal shoes, an 11-year-old boy declared here in juvenile court.

"As I was walking past the shop I heard the devil say, 'Go into that shop and steal those shoes.' When I had taken the shoes I heard the devil say, 'Put those shoes under your coat and run.'"

"When did you first come in contact with the devil?" asked the magistrate.

"I don't go to Sunday school, but they tell me I can meet the devil there any day," he answered.

JOCKEYS SUE OIL MAGNATE

LOS ANGELES, (AP)—Beach A. Laselle, wealthy La Canada oil man, has been named defendant in two false arrest suits, each asking $75,000, filed by Charles Scott and Harry Kay, former jockeys.

The plaintiffs alleged they were held in jail 61 days on grand theft charges, and that the charges were dismissed when they were brought to trial in superior court. They claim they were arrested on Laselle's complaint after he gave them money for a horse race "tip."

Hazing was abolished at West Point in 1901.

OIL TIDELAND HEARING SET

SAN FRANCISCO, (AP)—The California supreme court today set March 3 as the hearing date on a plea of the city of Long Beach to settle a dispute as to whether the city or the state owns oil deposits beneath Long Beach tidelands. The hearing will be in Los Angeles.

The city of Long Beach petitioned for a writ of mandate directing D. A. Marshall, Long Beach port manager, to advertise for bids to drill on the lands. Private individuals, said the petition, have lost no time in sinking wells adjacent to the tide lands, and are draining away the oil.

CONGRESS TOLD DEBT MOUNTS

WASHINGTON. (AP)—Representative Engel (R-Mich.) told the house the nation faced "disaster" because the total public and private long term indebtedness was $133,414,805,693.

The debt, he said, is 99.4 per cent of the assessed valuation of every piece of real and personal property.

At an average rate of 4 per cent, Engel estimated, the annual interest on the public and private debt is $5,000,000,000.

Wireless Waves in Pipe May Revolutionize Radio

NEW YORK. (AP)—Lilliputian wireless waves so short they travel inside a pipe and are picked up on an antenna only one inch high were placed before the radio engineering world here today by the Bell Telephone laboratories.

In pipes, the engineers were informed, these midget waves promise to travel like telegraphed messages, but without the limits imposed by a wire. A single small pipe, between two cities, for example, might carry all the telephone conversations wanted.

The waves ranged from four to eight inches long. They traveled through a 20 foot exhibition pipe.

The inch long antenna picks them off at the other end. They have been piped a mile.

The waves are made by tubes no larger than a common electric light bulb. Their "frequencies," or pulsations, are thousands of millions of times a second.

Still shorter wireless waves, only an inch and a quarter, have been produced in the Bell laboratories. They are very close to heat waves. At California Institute of Technology at Pasadena Dr. Potapenko, experimenting with similar short waves, has reported unusual experiments in imparting artificial fevers to selected tissues.

500 STUDENTS 'WANT SCHOOL'

SAN JOSE. (AP)—Five hundred high school pupils left their classes here and formed a procession chanting "We want a high school" in protest of the defeat of an $1,800,000 bond issue for a new building.

The vote, held Tuesday, showed opinion about equally divided but a two thirds majority was required to approve the proposal.

Principal Forrest Murdock said 2000 other students took no part in the demonstration.

Vinegar was first obtained by the natural souring of wines.

RAIL OPERATION COSTS FALL

WASHINGTON. (AP)—The Association of American Railroads has reported that class 1 railroads had a net railway operating income of $25,971,525 in December — a decrease of 63 per cent compared with December, 1936.

The association said the decrease resulted from a sharp decline in traffic which developed in the latter part of 1937.

Net railway operating income as class 1 railroads for 1937 was reported at $590,180,565, which the association said was a return of 2.27 per cent on their property investment. In 1936 net railway operating income was $667,174,165 or 2.57 per cent of property investment.

SEC'Y PERKINS TO TESTIFY

WASHINGTON. (AP)—The senate commerce committee will call Secretary Perkins for questioning with regard to maritime labor matters.

The action was taken at the request of Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.), who said Miss Perkins would be asked to appear at an executive session of the committee for questioning on two subjects.

She will be asked, he said, for all files pertaining to the citizenship status of Harry Bridges, west coast maritime labor leader, and for her views on labor provisions of the proposed national maritime act.

PUBLISHER DIES AT 41

HOLLYWOOD. (AP)—Wilfred Beebe, 41, president of the Commercial News Press, is dead in Hollywood.

Death was due to a bronchial ailment, and his friends said his grief over the death of his mother last week was probably a contributing factor.

Beebe was one time publisher of the Hollywood News, resigning when it became the Citizen-News. He was also in the accounting department of the Los Angeles Express.

Survivors include the widow, father and a brother. Beebe lived in Alhambra.

804,000 Petition Low Living Cost

LONDON. (AP)—The "liberal petition," the plea of 804,000 British subjects against rising costs of living, was borne ceremoniously into the house of commons today by 22 elderly attendants in knee-breeches.

Five of the 804,000 signers, chosen as typical, rode triumphantly to parliament in a bus with the huge bulk of the petition. The five were a working mother, a pensioned postoffice worker, a 71-year-old widow, an unemployed ex-soldier and costermonger (street hawker of fruit and vegetables).

U.S.-French Train Bombed in Spain

PERPIGNAN, France. (AP)—An American-French train of ambulances and food trucks was bombed today by insurgent planes in Spain with a loss of three lives, Spanish government border authorities reported.

Twelve persons were reported seriously injured in the attack at Figueras, 15 miles below the French border.

Four American ambulance units were in the motorcade, the Spanish reports said, but it was not known whether Americans were among the casualties.

Rare Blood Hunt Starts for Victim

PHILADELPHIA. (AP)—Physicians at a Philadelphia hospital pushed a desperate search today for the rare blood donor who might offer a chance of life to Carl Jorgenson, 15, victim of the deadly streptococcus viridans.

Qualified donors, they said, must have blood of the same type as the victim's. Volunteers to meet the first qualification are easy to obtain, the doctors explained, and there are a few persons who have survived similar attacks.

United Miners Seek 30 Hours

WASHINGTON. (AP)—The United Mine Workers' convention ordered union officers today to demand a 30-hour work week in the 1939 convention with soft coal operators.

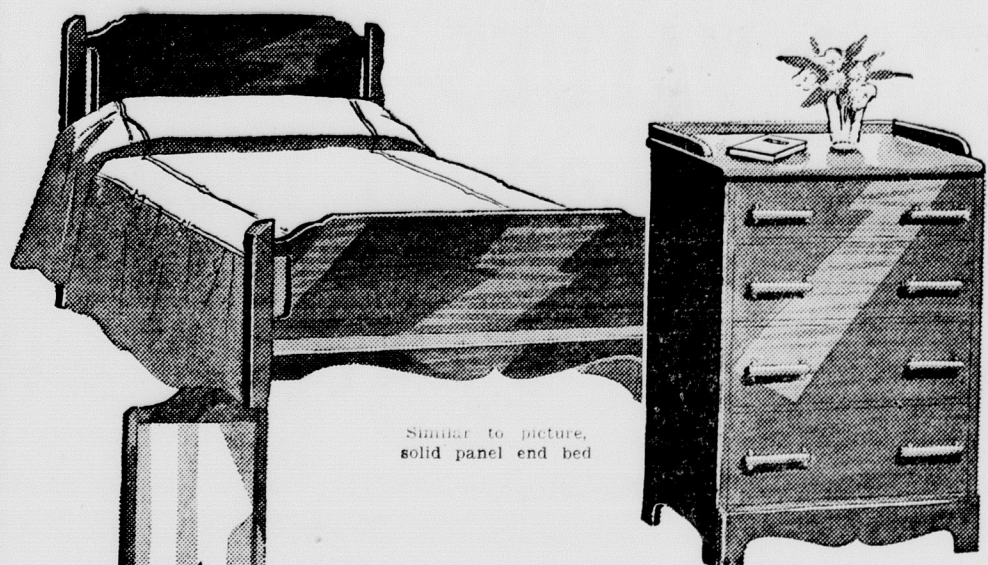

In all other respects, the convention gave the officers a free hand in dealing with the operators, directing them merely to obtain "the best possible agreement."

Record Navel Shipment Told

LOS ANGELES. (AP)—The largest single cargo of navel oranges ever sent to European markets, 50,000 boxes, will be shipped from San Pedro next Thursday by the California Fruit Growers exchange, T. H. Powell, general sales manager, announced today.

It will be sent aboard the freighter Royal Star.

HOLDING WPA JOB LIKE PLAYING HOSSES

L. A. SHOUTS ECONOMY WARNINGS

Mutterings in Local Offices But—So What?

By GEORGE COVERDALE
Holding an office job in the Orange County WPA is like trying to pick a long shot at the horse races.

WPA officials in Los Angeles say there will be no considerable changes in the personnel of the organization here, and in the next breath point out a program of economy is necessary.

Within the past month the local headquarters has been an ever-changing panorama of faces, while the furniture at the office gets scarier and scarier as the days go by.

Under the leadership of Col. Connolly in Los Angeles, it appears the army has method in its madness. Anyhow, there is a method. Note the occurrences of the last 30 days:

INKING OF CHANGE

First inkling of change, following Los Angeles taking over the duties of the San Diego headquarters, was separation of the women's and professional division from the construction side. The professional group went so far as to seek separate lodging, one explanation being the old office was "too crowded."

Then came the day when officials here announced all further publicity would come exclusively from the Los Angeles office. They summed their position in the answer: "We don't know nothing."

Shortly thereafter real physical changes became manifest locally and underecurrent mutterings of lesser office employees. Director Dan Mulholland removed a strong cigar from his mouth long enough one afternoon to bid his co-workers "goodbye." Sometime before he applied for a leave of absence. Later he said he had been intending to quit for some time, believing he could do better in private business.

BOMB EXPLODES

There were more mutterings and splutterings of dissatisfaction, but verbal objections by this time were confined to trusted persons. A bombshell exploded at San Clemente last week revealing a new administrative technique, when a "wrecking crew" from Los Angeles looked over a project and fired two workers. The warning was then issued this committee might call any place anytime in the county to weed out others who weren't satisfactory.

Employees of the local office spurned talking about the new system altogether without permission from Los Angeles. Day before yesterday Field Representative William Aho dropped into Santa Ana long enough to say the administrative office force here will be whittled down to several individuals. "Got to keep administrative costs below the 5 per cent mark," was an explanation.

COMPLAINT LAUNCHED

Started at this announcement, the adjustment and complaint department, faced with handling 2300 employees on a skeleton staff, phoned the Los Angeles office to receive the assurance there that this department is not to be tampered with.

Beginning Monday another new feature will be instituted locally. Everyone working on a construction job must be examined by a doctor. At the same time non-security foremen will have fewer hours work at less pay. No one will lose their jobs in Orange county, however, if they are doing their work properly. Why? Because Los Angeles officials assure this.

HEIRESS DIVORCED
CHICAGO, (AP)—Merry Fahrney, patent medicine heiress, was awarded a circuit court divorce yesterday on grounds of cruelty from Baron Arturo Berlingieri, her third husband.

I Just Found Out 'Living on Acre'

—By—
MILLARD
BROWNE

Carl Swain "railroaded" for 23 dusty, grimy years, and he was fed up—long before the 23 years were over. The excitement and nervous strain were too wearing. His wife was fed up, too, because Carl's hours were too hectic, his home life too irregular.

Like a lot of people, particularly city folk who've been keyed up to high-speed industries, they spent most of the 23 years yearning and saving up for "a little place in the country."

Today Mr. and Mrs. Swain are "living on an acre" at the edge of Costa Mesa. Not at all unique, their life is notable because it accurately typifies more than 100 other Orange county farmers who also are living on an acre.

It's typical because the Swains, like most of the others, are industrious white people who came to their small farm because they wanted relaxation and freedom. And, again typical of the majority of one-acre farmers, they live on the fringe of some Orange county town, raise most of their own vegetables but specialize on poultry and other livestock. They work hard, farm intensively and scientifically.

Swain isn't getting rich on his acre (it was only half an acre until last fall, when he bought the other half), but he's maintaining himself, his wife and a young boy. He lives in a small, attractive house, drives a new car and pays all bills soon after the first of the month.

Half the food on the Swain dinner table comes from the one-acre farm. Majority of the other half—along with new shoes, taxes and spending money—is purchased out of profits on eggs, his revenue-producing specialty.

No. 2 income "crop" on the Swain farm is rabbits. He sells about 700 dressed ones a year, averages 60 cents apiece, plus 15 cents for the hides. He figures he makes nearly 50 cents on each rabbit, since average cost of feed between the time rabbits are bred and sold is 25 cents.

That's just pin-money, though, compared to the chickens. Swain's flock of 700 produces a year-around average of around 400 eggs per day, average market price of which is slightly over 20 cents a dozen.

The Costa Mesa farmer measures his feed carefully, knows something is wrong if his eggs cost him more than 11 cents a dozen in feed. Out of his selling profit, he lays aside a certain percentage to pay for the next bunch of young chicks to replace his three and four-year-old hens when their production slows up.

When feed begins to cost too much, he culls out the hens that aren't doing their part, sells whatever his wife can't use in their own home to a Santa Ana market.

Swain is more fortunate than some of his colleagues of the one-acre plan: He has a market for every egg he can produce, for whatever rabbits he doesn't sell to passersby who do their buying direct, and for all the fliers and eating chickens he turns out.

Most expensive "raw materials" used on the Swain farm are feed and baby chicks. He even helps the feed budget along by raising all the greenery—alfalfa and barley—his rabbits and chickens can use.

Baby chicks, though, are one item about which Swain is particular. He used to breed his own, but that's another art, he found, and now he buys sexed chicks guaranteed to be 95 per cent pullets.

Vegetables for home consumption are grown on a carefully cultivated plot at the side of the house include two or three rows of youngberries, string beans, lettuce, beets, cabbage, radishes, turnips, cauliflower and strawberries. One or another of the crops in this vegetable garden is ready to eat nearly any time during the year.

That way, he has all the vegetables his family can use, a little extra that he occasionally sells. Take the two rows of youngberries, for instance. After his wife had canned all they needed last year, he sold $10.25 worth of fresh ones to a market. It all counts when you're working that small a piece of ground.

Farming on an acre, in Swain's case at least, is strictly a one-man proposition. His wife takes care of the house, rarely helps him with the outdoor work. The job keeps him busy from morning to night, but it isn't as tough as you might think.

"I get up around 7 o'clock," he confided. "But I don't have to. There's no time-clock to punch, and I can roll over and sleep for a while if I feel like it." He doesn't have to feed the chickens early in the morning, he explains, because the feed is set out after they go to roost, and an alarm clock connection turns on lights in the chicken coop early in the morning, gets the chickens up and they find their own breakfast.

Independence, rather than prosperity, is the thing that keeps this typical small-time farmer happy on his typical one-acre plot.

Others like him around the county may vary the program a little. Only one on record that lives fairly prosperously without aid of chickens, rabbits or squabs, however, is an Anaheim

LIVESTOCK WARNING ISSUED

"Keep healthy Orange county cattle free from contagion."

This was the appeal issued today by Dr. J. H. Bower, county livestock inspector, who urges persons contemplating the purchase or moving of livestock in this area to first secure a permit from him. Pointing out that tubercular infected cattle are becoming rare as result of enforcement of stringent state and federal laws, Dr. Bower says spread of the disease may be further deterred by cattle owners' cooperation with his office.

Bower lays down the following rules, quoted from the county ordinance 251.

1. Obtain a permit from the county livestock inspector before bringing in cattle so that he may know where these cattle are coming from and from this information he will be able to ascertain whether or not it is necessary to test them upon arrival.
2. Obtain a permit when purchasing cattle from local dairymen or removing cattle to or from public pastures. There will undoubtedly be a few dairies in the county which will carry a slight degree of infection and a list of these dairies will be on file at the livestock inspector's office.
3. Obtain a health certificate which shows these cattle are out of a clean herd in a modified accredited area or from an accredited herd.

Nobility to Visit U. S. on Honeymoon

BERLIN, (AP)—Grand Duchess Kira of the Romanoffs and Prince Louis Ferdinand of the Hohenzollerns plan to go honeymooning to America after their marriage May 3 at Doorn, the Netherlands. The 30-year-old grandson of the exiled former Kaiser Wilhelm and the daughter of the pretender of the non-existent Russian throne expect to go on an extended trip abroad with the White House at Washington as one of the first places to be visited. President Roosevelt has sent a cordial letter of felicitation to the couple.

man who grows nothing but fruit and vegetables.

His acre includes a lineup like this: Avocado, valencias, lemons, grapefruit, tangerines, one walnut tree, and a "cover crop" of blackberries and boysen-berries planted between the trees.

Possibility

San Juan Capistrano has its nomination for a supervisor's job.

By FRANK ORR

The drum-beating down in Supervisor Noel Elliott West's fifth district wasn't supposed to start for a while yet—but then West had to go get himself accused by the grand jury.

Today there are two possibilities being considered by would-be fifth district supervisors. One is that West may be tossed out on his ear before long, when he is tried on Potemkin counts including attempted bribery, calling the sheriff a something-or-other and interfering with keeping peace during the strike, and stirring up a court-house rumpus so that office workers couldn't get their work done. The other possibility, of course, is that West's trial may end in a hung jury or an acquittal, thus starting the supervisory campaign at the usual time, come spring.

WHO WILL GET JOB?

But a would-be campaigner can't be caught napping. So how they're wondering who will get the job by appointment if and when West gets the bum's rush from the superior court, and subsequent appellate courts if the attorney's fee fund holds out.

Potential candidates for supervisor, whose friends hope one of them might be appointed if West is fired, today stand at about four, the list of real possibilities having increased by one.

One is Carl Hankey of San Juan Capistrano, who is an earnest and willing civic worker and has been persuaded that perhaps it would be a good idea to get into the swim.

ANOTHER POSSIBILITY

Another, of course, is Dr. C. G. Huston of Costa Mesa, who barely got nudged out in the primaries last time and has been after the

WARSHIPS TOLD TO 'ATTACK'

PARIS, (AP)—French warships patrolling the Mediterranean sea outside Spanish territorial waters have been ordered "to attack and destroy if possible" any submarine discovered in the steamship lanes.

The foreign office said these instructions were issued as a result of conferences in London after the sinking of the British freighter Endymion with loss of ten lives.

The announcement said a decision had been reached "to correlate" movements and actions of French and British patrol ships in the Mediterranean under the Nyon "anti-piracy" accord of last September.

(Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden in London yesterday laid proposals for tightening the Mediterranean patrols before the French and Italian ambassadors.)

Episcopal Council Unit Holds Meet

SAN FRANCISCO, (AP)—The women's auxiliary of the California branch of the Episcopal National Council is holding its 58th annual meeting here, following adjournment of the annual California diocese convention.

The diocese session approved April 19 as the date for a special convention here to select a bishop coadjutor to divide duties with the 69-year-old Rt. Rev. Edward Lambe Parsons and to succeed him as bishop in 1940.

West job since that time. Before the grand jury laid its egg, even, Dr. Huston was looking forward to the campaign.

Third is Lloyd Claire, outspoken city councilman from Newport Beach, who is the bay district's candidate for the seat on the board. That area, the citizenry points out, has more population in a smaller space than any other region in the district, but hasn't yet had a supervisor.

UNCLE DAN FIGURES

Fourth, since the army swept him out of his job as WPA headman, is Dan Mulholland, mayor of San Clemente. Uncle Dan is a contractor in private life, the favorite son of Hann Condon, and a potential candidate since he got canned from WPA when the army moved in. He's still wondering, but may run, or may look for an appointment if West is ousted.

Appointment would leave the field fairly open, although Hankey or Dr. Huston might have the edge. Come election time, though, anything can happen.

RETAIL OIL MEN APPEAL TO F.D.R.

MILWAUKEE, (AP)—The National Association of Petroleum Retailers' executive board has asked President Roosevelt, "How long are we to be orphans of the storm?"

The board, saying it spoke for 300,000 oil dealers, complained the industry was not represented at the conference of small business men at Washington. The dealers said they were left out of the NRA and arbitrarily denied a voluntary code by the federal trade commission last September.

"And now again we are completely ignored," said the telegram. "Our business is going into a tailspin as the result of the verdict in the Madison anti-trust cases. Price wars are becoming more prevalent every day. Are we now to have a program of unrelenting competition?"

MISS MILLEN HOSTESSES PARTY

Delightfully surprising the members of her executive committee, Miss Elizabeth Milten, chairman of the Edison Women's committee, entertained with a clever birthday and anniversary party Monday evening at her home, 510 West Santa Clara street, Santa Ana.

As four of the executive committee celebrated birthdays during January, and a fifth member enjoyed the completion of one year with the Edison company, Miss Milten planned the evening's program about these events.

A large birthday cake, beautifully decorated with candles and candles, formed a lovely centerpiece for the table, which was attractively arranged with crystal and candles. Appropriate greeting cards for each guest proved to be enjoyable place cards.

The early part of the evening was spent in a discussion of committee activities for the remainder of the year, with the social hour ensuing. Honored guests were Cora McGuire, Lois Simmons and Kay Logan of Orange, Anna Temann of Orange, and Ida Aspin of Anaheim.

Polka Dots

Big black velvet bows give a Gay Nineties air to this dinner gown of black and white polka-dotted mousseline de soie, Rosalind Russell, motion picture actress, wears it.

Heart shaped appointments, appropriate both to the occasion and the time of the year, were used in decorating the home. Tiny red gallees were distributed to the guests before the playing of Chinese bridge. A chromium tray was awarded as first prize to Miss Edna Ebersole, and a vase as low prize to Mrs. Edna Smith.

Refreshments were served at the small tables to guests. Later in the evening a lace table cloth and more additions for her crystal set were presented to Miss Warmer. She will become the bride of Willard Keith of San Clemente on Feb. 19.

ORIGINAL PLAY BY MRS. HANSON GIVEN AT BARN

An original play written by Mrs. Hanson was presented before members and guests of the Community Players in the Barn Thursday evening with a large crowd attending in spite of the rainy weather. The three-act drama was entitled "Wind Candles." The scene was set in a small California mission town before the advent of the radio.

Mrs. Hanson who directed the play was also the chairman of the evening. Between the acts she played several selections on the piano. Mrs. Hanson said that she received the inspiration for her play while traveling in Mexico last summer, at which time she was deeply impressed by the simple devotion of the Mexican people.

The cast of the play included two members of the Community Players group of this city, the balance of the parts being taken by a group of young players from the audience. The players well as follows: Laura Marks as Tina Ross, Vivian Harper as Carmelita, Idus Harper as Felipe, Harriett Parnell as Raquel, Annette Harper as Terres, Wanda Ebell as Mrs. Morrison, Roy Connolly as Vedantachet, Herschel Parnell as Ted, James Hathcock as Tom Morrison, and Harry Hanson as Father Ferdinand. The latter two players are the members of the Community group here who took part in the production.

The stage of the Barn was enlarged for the occasion with elaborate and fitting scenery constructed by members of the cast and production staff. Following the play tamales and coffee were served to the hostesses of the evening, Mrs. Clair Hanson and Mrs. Wm. Spurgeon.

LITERARY CLUB HAS PROGRAM ON 'FAIRY TALES'

Pegasus Club met at the home of Mrs. Frank Was for a dessert luncheon and program Thursday afternoon. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Frank Lansdown and Mrs. Rose Haverly. Miss Gertrude Andrews was welcomed as a new member to the group. The subject for the program selected by Mrs. Was was "Fairy Tales."

Members of the club contributed their part to the program as follows: Mrs. Jesse Wolf told a story, "The Eight Immortals"; Mrs. C. C. Fuller, another story, "A Little Flower"; Mrs. George Bond gave a poem, "A Field of Make-Believe"; Mrs. Chas. For the morning devotionals, each member gave a favor. Present were the Mesdames Elizabeth Bicknese, James Pedersen, John Maret, Elwin Gammel, John Sutherland, Lewis Gall, William Breckenridge, James Smith, William Jones, Ida Meikle, W. A. Chapman, Ann Hamer, Lottie Abbott, P. Leonard, Joe Hazen, A. P. Koentopp, Charles Baldwin, Miss Glenna Abbott, and a guest, Mrs. Garrett Hooven of Alton, Iowa.

NEWPORT EBELL GIVES VALENTINE PROGRAM TEA

The Newport Beach Ebell club entertained its members at a Valentine tea Thursday afternoon at the beach community at which Lorena Hinshaw, well known reader, was featured in a group of original monologues. Charlotte Stafford also contributed to the program of entertainment with several violin selections. She was accompanied at the piano by Ann Uleth.

Following the program tea was served with Mrs. H. C. Sloan and Mrs. Susan Rutherford pouring. The refreshments table was attractively decorated in a red and white motif with red geraniums and a large red heart as a centerpiece. Guests were presented with dainty Valentine corsages upon arriving.

The Garden section of the Newport club and Crafts section of the Newport club will hold a meeting Monday at the home of Mrs. Vernon Orr of Newport Heights who is the new section chairman. This group will continue its work on crepe paper craft.

Hostesses for the next meeting to be held Feb. 17 were announced as follows: Mesdames E. E. Boudinot, V. E. Britton and E. I. Moore.

POTTERY SET SHOWERED ON BRIDE-ELECT

The imminence of St. Valentine's day provided an appropriate motif for a showering of prizes to a pretty shower which complimented Miss Mary Jane Gross, who will become the bride of Jack Kendall on March 21.

Miss Clara Cullen and Mrs. Alben Tinsford (Helen Newbold), herself a recent bride, joined talents to hostess the party in the home of Miss Cullen at 1101 South Parton street. Red and white colors were employed in the gay spring flowers used for decorations, the tallies, and table appointments.

Hearts provided the entertainment for the evening, resulting in the awarding of prizes to Miss Mary Tomlinson for high score and to Miss Marian Haldin for low score. Refreshments of heart-shaped cakes, ice cream centered with tiny hearts were served at the small card tables.

Highlighting the party was the presentation of a lovely pottery set for four, all in yellow, to the popular bride-elect.

Guests included Mrs. Mabel Kendall, mother of the groom-to-be, Mrs. Harry Gross, mother of the bride-elect, Mrs. Ralph Couer and Mrs. Tom Fangle of Fullerton, Mrs. Long Skell of Long Beach, Mrs. Frank Willis, Mrs. Walter Martin, Mrs. Dixie Robinson, Miss Gross, Miss Jane Wade, Miss Theresa Allen, Miss Mary Jane Gross, Miss Marian Haldin, Miss Mary Tomlinson, and the two hostesses.

QUAINTNESS WILL REIGN IN FASHIONS

CHICAGO.—Back-to-Bonnets is a feminine spring fashion movement designed for grown-ups.

Bonnets not unlike baby's headgear were shown today in the fashion clinic held at the merchant's market for the buyers attending the numerous wholesale clothing markets.

A close fitting turquoise blue linen bonnet that ties under the chin was modeled with a pink linen spectator sports frock that portrayed the new silhouette of squared shoulders, higher bustline, flat midriff and shorter skirt.

And the designers also remembered the very, very young generation. One three-year-old modeled a new idea in play suits which was inspired by a fashion worn by her great-grandmother. This gay plaid red gingham romper had an apron front, and a series of white lace ruffles in back, giving a bustle effect.

Suits for women will continue to rank important this spring. Mannish tailored suits in typically men's suitings—twills, worsteds, gabardines—in black, navy and grey were early leaders predicted. The new ear marks included broadened shoulders, longer jackets and less fit at the waist.

Described as "high-fashion" right now was a suit combination of navy blue gabardine with a blue and white tweed jacket. It was modeled with a yellow sweater.

Las Meninas Skate At Party

Festivities which ranged from a merry skating party to a Spanish dinner were enjoyed last night by members of Las Meninas, women's service club from Santa Ana Junior college, and their guests during the annual informal party of the group.

Gathering early in the evening at the Santa Ana Skating rink, Fourth and Van Ness, the party spent several hours before traveling out on West Fifth street to Sol Gonzales' La Hacienda cafe for a Spanish dinner.

Miss Helen Lowe, president of Las Meninas, presided over the affair, assisted by a committee of her club members. Mrs. Sam R. Butler, Mrs. Emily Batey, and Miss Genevieve Humiston, advisor, were chaperones for the party. Miss Betty Lee, student at U. C. L. A. and former Meninas member, was the toastmaster.

Included in the group of members were Miss Helen Lowe, Miss Irene McFarland, Miss Aloen Miller, Miss Juanita Stanfield, Miss Stella Christ, Miss Roberta Nicholls, Miss Persia Davis, Miss Betty Anna Munson, Miss Billie Johnson, Miss Margaret Lawrence, Miss Josephine Butler, Miss Barbara Speed, Miss Eileen Gibbs.

Guests were Dick Phillips, Elmer Meyer, Bill Semmacker, Bob Paul, David Welsh, Franklin Guthrie, Merle Griset, Carroll Joy, Erwin Youel, Tommy Croddy, Bob Fowler, Lou Smith and Jesse Wolfe.

FAREWELL PARTY HOSTESSED BY MRS. ALLEN

A pretty farewell party was that at which Mrs. Curtis Allen entertained last night in the attractive home of her sister, Mrs. Harold Maylen, 131 Bachman drive. The hostess has been a very popular visitor here, and her guests were sorry to learn of her intended departure for Monterey, where she will make her home until next fall.

Vivid snapdragons and stock made a beautiful background for games of auction and contract bridge, and later a Valentine motif was carried out in refreshments. The honoree was presented with a charming corsage of deep red rosebuds, a Valentine farewell from Mrs. John J. Vernon.

High score prizes were presented later to Mrs. George Holmes and Mrs. Stuart Hillier of Pomona for contract and auction, and a galloping prize was won by Mrs. Paul Andersen.

Attending the affair were Mrs. John Turtan, Mrs. John J. Vernon, Mrs. Charles Rumell, Mrs. George Holmes, Mrs. Paul Andersen, Mrs. W. P. McGuigan, Mrs. R. W. York, Mrs. Edith Davis and Miss Genevieve Humiston of Long Beach, Mrs. Carter Cannon of Corona, Mrs. Stuart Hillier of Pomona and Mrs. Maylen.

MRS. LEONARD ENTERTAINS FOR EASTERNER

Mrs. N. H. Leonard, 620 North Ross street, was hostess to a group of friends at a delightful luncheon party Wednesday, entertaining in honor of her sister-in-law, Mrs. E. A. Leonard of Spring Valley, Minn., who has been visiting in the Southland and who leaves tomorrow for her home.

Bowls of colorful sweet peas were used for decorating the table, and a lively conversation and sewing occupied the hours.

Guests of Mrs. Leonard were Mrs. E. A. Leonard, Mrs. S. F. Leonard, Mrs. C. H. Leonard, Mrs. Christine Leonard (all sisters-in-law), Mrs. Lila Akors, Mrs. Jessie Corey, Mrs. L. Reynolds, Miss Jessie Kempton, Mrs. Edith Vose and Mrs. Eleanor Minter.

GROUP ENJOYS POT-LUCK

Miss Margaret Blackwood was hostess last evening to a group of friends in the home of Miss Frances Crowther, 1235 South Parton street, entertaining them at a pot-luck dinner and informal evening.

The evening hours were spent in sewing and informal chatting. Miss Marjorie Haster will be hostess for the next meeting.

Mary Stoddard 'Oh, Well' Answers 'Still Wondering's' Request for Advice on Remarrying

She has two small sons. Their daddy died five years ago and she has never had any desire to remarry. Is she cheating her boys of something they should have to make them normal, well-balanced men by not marrying again so they may have the masculine influence in the home? She signs herself "Still Wondering" and asked for the impartial viewpoints of strangers, because her friends think she should look for a man who will be a real father to her boys.

In her letter, which appeared in this column a week ago, she requested the opinion of "Oh, Well," the young man correspondent who sits by his fireside and seems to be bored with life in general. Today he expressed his viewpoint on her problem and also thanks our many readers who answered him.

Miss Stoddard: Thanks for forwarding the letters to me. My reaction to them in general might be expressed by oches, ah's, umm's, ugh's and ha-ha's. And perhaps a few wistful sighs. It's no wonder you have such a broad understanding of human nature; such letters as these reveal more than that expressed in the mere words.

Regarding the letter signed "Still Wondering," she implies that she has no desire to marry again; wonders if she might be "cheating" her children by not doing so and wonders if any man could be a real father to another man's children.

Considering her apparent viewpoint and capabilities, the answer is obviously no! Nothing surpasses a mother's love in molding a child's nature, and imbuing that child with deep regard for the principles of worthwhile living. Unless the mother love is of a selfish nature; if she reveals in the satisfaction of a natural instinct to spoil her children—then perhaps it might be well for her to be obliged to divide her consideration between a husband and her children. But if her love for her children is of an unselfish nature—then again I say that she needs no help as far as her children are concerned. Unless it's a matter of bread and butter.

I take it that her children are at an age when impressions are indelible. Should she marry now, or while her children are in their early teens, probably when the glamour or newness waned—there would naturally be a tendency towards magnifying trivial things, and the children would oftentimes naturally and unwittingly cause friction. Friction would cause harshness and intolerance and thoughtlessness.

Even though she and her husband might be able to bridge these gaps by broad understanding—the children would not sink deep. They would begin to build in their own minds, as they became confused because of the lack of continued evidence of their mother's undivided love—which they have already learned to believe was theirs.

No man can possibly do justice to all concerned in a marriage with a woman who has children of that age—especially when he

Group Fetes Newlyweds At Home

A merry group of friends joined in surprising Mr. and Mrs. Lester H. Schmelzer in their charming new home at 1007 Freeman street last night, bringing with them lovely flowers, refreshments, and a beautiful coffee table as a joint gift from them and several others unable to attend the party.

Those in the party were from the county tax collector's office, with which Mrs. Schmelzer is associated. Until their wedding of New Year's Eve in Anaheim, she was Miss Edna Harkendorff. After a thorough inspection of the pretty home, from its red and white kitchen through every closet, the group played bunts and other games.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Gilbank, Mr. and Mrs. Don Moxley, Mr. and Mrs. Harold English, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Baxter, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Powell, Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Boomer, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stewart, Lucille Harkens, Laura Joiner, Oma Hall, Helen Wiebe, Blanche McDowell, Jess Barrett, Lulu Ott, Eunice Wilson and Edward Dugan.

AUXILIARY PLANS DISTRICT MEETING

Plans for a meeting of the 8th district, including four auxiliary groups, were made by members of the Ernest L. Kellogg auxiliary. Disabled American Veterans, when they met Wednesday night in the Knights of Columbus hall.

The meeting will begin with a noon dinner at Daniger's on Sunday, Feb. 6, followed by a business session in the same building. There will be delegates attending from San Diego, San Bernardino, Ontario, and Santa Ana.

Sunday, Feb. 13 will be regular visiting day at Savtelle hospital, and many local people are planning to motor to the hospital. Plans were also made to assist in selling tickets for the annual military ball, which will be held in the Valencia ballroom on Feb. 21. Mrs. Van Leonard Brown, commander, conducted the meeting.

learns (which he soon would) that he had married the children—rather than a woman who wanted and needed him for himself.

I catch a tone of self-reliance in "Still Wondering's" letter. I do not believe she is really in need of advice, because she will probably use good judgment when necessary. So—my humble opinion is offered in reply to her curious request. "OH, WELL."

Speaking Of Operations . . .

By The AP Feature Service

HORSE doctors of another generation sometimes operated on livestock simply by twisting the animal's tail until that hurt so much the poor beast didn't care what else happened. . . . Today veterinarians minimize pain in animal operations just as doctors do in human surgery, by use of anesthetics. In fact, animals often provide the laboratory where science tests new drugs to learn whether they are safe to use on persons. . . . Anesthetics and other advances, such as sterilization of instruments by boiling, now save many animal lives where once the only remedy would have been shooting. . . . Here, for example, are some recent achievements in animal surgery:

Wally was born at the Massachusetts S.P.C.A. hospital by what was said to be the first successful Caesarean section ever performed on a monkey.

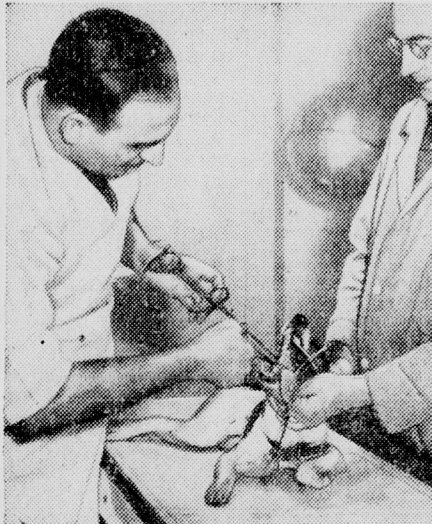

This metal "restrainer" enables attendants at the Bronx zoo infirmary in New York to administer nose drops for sinus colds in porcupines.

Dr. Otto Strader of the University of Pennsylvania demonstrates the use of his mechanical bone-setting device for mending a horse's broken leg.

Dr. Charles F. Runnels of Columbus, Ohio, removes a cyst-like obstruction from the nose of Jiggs, 9-year-old chimpanzee of the Columbus zoo.

Dr. Clifford Wagner of Cleveland removes a Boston Terrier's tonsils—his 140th tonsillectomy during an epidemic of tonsillitis among Cleveland dogs.

Doctors of the San Diego zoo hospital remove a fish hook from an adult seal brought to the zoo for treatment by the crew of a fishing boat.

'LITTLE MAN' STILL INSISTS

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Delegates of "little business" adopted today over many shouted protests a program of advice to the Roosevelt administration which included a recommendation that the government supply financial aid by stimulating private credit.

Without formal debate, a standing vote was taken by Chairman Fred Roth of Cleveland, despite insistence by some of the small business men from the floor that minority reports be heard.

During the temporary tumult, A. S. Shafer, Philadelphia, was tossed out of the conference for the second time.

Shafer was ejected from yesterday's meeting by commerce department guards. Today a group of business men did the job.

HEARING POSTPONED
CHICAGO, (AP)—To give defense counsel time to confer, Federal Judge John P. Barnes has postponed until Tuesday arraignment of John Henry Seadlund on a charge of kidnapping the late Charles S. Ross.

Robert E. (left) and Douglas M. Andrew, owners of the fast-growing Andrew Bros. Market, 1206 East Fourth street, have completely remodeled their market for the convenience of their patrons and give their patrons a swift delivery system. The market is a member of the Red and White Stores organization.

Completely remodeled, the Andrew Bros. Market, 1206 East Fourth street, is now even more able to accommodate the patrons. Shoppers of this popular member of the Red and White Stores will find merchandise better displayed and easier to obtain through the arrangement of the counters and shelves. The cheerful atmosphere that the two owners, Robert E. and Douglas M. Andrew, have given to the fast growing neighborhood store is augmented by the bright walls, pleasant lighting, new fruit and vegetable bins and other improvements that have been effected there in the past week.

The Andrew Bros. Market features what they call one of the swiftest delivery systems in the city. Complete meat market, grocery and fresh fruit and vegetable departments are as near to anyone living in this community as their telephone is," Bob Andrew said. The Andrew brothers are members of the Red and White Stores organization, passing along to their customers the benefits that accrue from that affiliation.

"The grocery business is my hobby," Bob Andrew said, "and I spend most of my time when not actually engaged in serving a customer, in keeping closely informed on market conditions, new edibles and new developments in the trade.

THE FRIDAY AFTERNOON

Here and There With Southern California Artists

By DONALD BUTTON

Had it ever occurred to you that Santa Ana lacks a significant annual celebration?

That Laguna has her Festival of Arts, Fullerton and Anaheim their Fall parades while we, key city of the Orange Empire, simply endorse the Tournament of Lights and all the rest of these pleasant fiestas?

Does it seem to you that we in Santa Ana are quite, quite lacking in that sterling virtue—civic pride?

And are you doing anything to remedy this trying situation?

These are questions I would ask of you before this year has marched so far upon its way, we can do nothing toward a really greater Santa Ana.

I do not ask, I expect, a bigger Santa Ana. I do demand a better Santa Ana!

Opportune time for letting California know Santa Ana is "a friendly people in a friendly city," it seems to me, is the prolongation, and intensification, of the week-end which the Junior College marks with an annual Fiesta, the Assistance League with its Horse show.

This is in May when gardens hereabouts are overflowing with spring blossoms, and again, it only seems natural to me, that a spring flower show (under the auspices of the Orange County Garden Clubs) should be held in the ever lovely patio of Bowers Museum.

Such a show (being confined to display only) would incur little expense, and strengthen the unity of the various clubs within the association. We should expect as important a flower show (in the not too distant future) from local flower-lovers as members of the Pasadena flower show association have built up.

May is, properly, the month of school exhibitions, and I can think of no better way to further, and strengthen the relationship between schools and the public, than a showing of scholastic achievement against the brilliant background of a fiesta mood.

Let us make that first week in May important, not only intramurally, but for all Southern California!

To give the Junior College Assistance League Fiesta week-end a further glamour and prestige the Library is already negotiating for the rare and eventful privilege of presenting Millard Sheets.

Pictures that are soon to be shown in New York and Chicago, Sheets has indicated, would be available for the local showing.

It is to be hoped that this showing can be arranged!

Those who were ready to see Millard Sheets' painting at Pomona College must wait until Feb. 12, for that day has been set for the opening of this important jubilee-year exhibition.

The show will center upon the painting he did at Christmas (as I had indicated), but will include earlier important work.

A comprehensive view of what Zornes is doing will be considerably augmented by going to look at his mural for the Claremont postoffice.

In fact, I even suggest the postoffice as prelude to the main showing at Bridges Hall!

Photography seems to have California in full control, what with the extensive showing at Los Angeles Museum (including some of the prints by Los Angeles pictorialists that are now in our own library).

I was much impressed Sunday with the many interested people actively engaged in an appreciation of the work on view.

Where there was a casual, detached interest in the painting galleries upstairs, spirited conversations marked the throngs in the print rooms.

Ted Cook and George Hurrell have a two-man showing of pictures taken recently in Mexico at Chouinard School, 741 South Grand, Los Angeles.

Of interest to professional cameramen may be the fact that all of the pictures had to be developed in Mexico, and were subject to the native chemicals and methods available.

This show is available another ten days and should be on your list of "must" Los Angeles shows.

In that same neighborhood Art Center School has a dynamic exhibition of foreign poster art, also holding until the 15th.

The catalogue is very intriguing, the material was gathered in Europe last summer by Art Center

LOTTERY QUIZ ARRESTS SEEN

LOS ANGELES, (AP)—Arrest of a number of persons suspected of being involved in a coastwide Japanese lottery ring was forecast today by federal officials.

Postal inspectors in both Los Angeles and San Francisco have been working on the case for weeks, it was disclosed. The Japanese lottery organization was said to have collected approximately $5,000,000 during the past year.

School faculty, and if you like posters at all, this is very worth while.

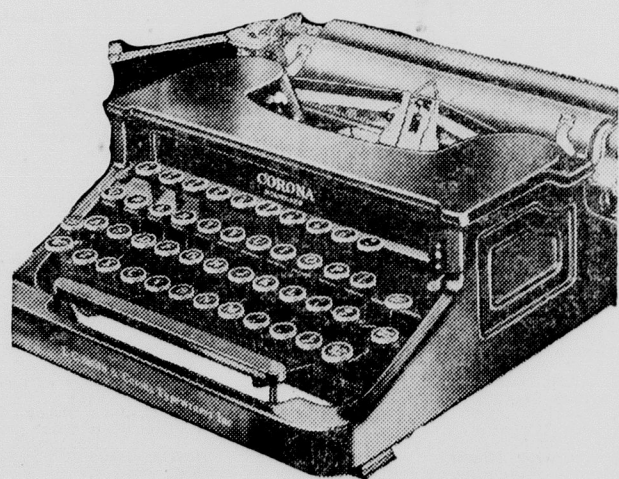

It is, as the school says, another in their series of "trend-marking exhibitions."

The Library photographic show is now in finished form for presentation to the general public.

Pictures mentioned Tuesday have been enhanced with Will Connell's studies of the Golden Gate Bridge; a much-traveled, and prize-awarded pictorial by R. L. Wakefield, president of the Los Angeles Camera club.

Compared with the prints current at Los Angeles Museum, the local show is as representative, as brilliant save that it has none of James Doolittle's colored photography!

I had hoped Doolittle's color-photograph of Shirley Temple would grace this show. Sad to say, there is none of this!

Lineup of Liberals

Erosion Experts Plan Preventative For Hillside Waste

RIVERSIDE.—Federal and state agencies have combined to carry out an extensive hillside investigation in California that is expected to point the way to conservation of hillside soil from erosion, and to promote growth of beneficial vegetation. This announcement is made by Dr. L. D. Batchelor, director of the University of California's experiment station, at Riverside, where headquarters for the investigation have been established.

The California agricultural experiment station and the soil conservation service of the U. S. department of agriculture have joined for the development of the project. The control of soil and water losses on hill lands will be especially studied.

Pony Express Terminal Offered As Museum

SACRAMENTO. (AP)—Now that wires flash messages across the nation in a few seconds, a telegraph company has decided it has no more use for the historic Pony Express terminal here. It has offered the building to the city of Sacramento as a landmark and museum.

Tortoise Shell May Be Boone Relic

ELMIRA, N. Y. (AP)—The inscription, "1787. D. Boone," on the bottom of a hollow tortoise shell may eventually prove to be an authentic signature of the famous Indian fighter, says Kenneth J. Reynolds, the shell's owner.

Reynolds said the shell was found by his stepfather on the bank of Otter Creek, Lycoming County, Pa., a region known to have been visited by Boone, who was born near Reading, Pa.

Prof. Agnes M. Orison of the Elmira college science department, who has examined the shell, believes that the signature may be authentic.

Seek Lost Arts Of Stone Age

COLUMBUS, O. (American Wire)—Recovering the lost arts of the stone age will be the object of a laboratory to be conducted at the Ohio State museum here, according to an announcement by Dr. H. C. Shetrone, museum director. It will be called the "Lithic laboratory," he said. Secrets of stone age man's technique in working with flint will be sought, Dr. Shetrone indicated.

Circus Cook Now Manager of Show

SARASOTA, Fla. (AP)—George W. Smith, 43, who began work as a cook with the circus 25 years ago, is today general manager of the Ringling Bros. and Barnum and Bailey combined circus.

Smith, general manager of the Al G. Barnes and Sells-Floto circus, since December, will succeed the late Carl Hathaway as general manager.

Albino Bison Now in Zoo

WASHINGTON. (AP)—If you know your Indian legends you may have heard of an albino bison but unless you have been to the Washington zoo, chances are you've never seen one.

W. E. Bell, chief of wild life research for the biological survey says so far as he knows there is no other specimen in existence. The zoo got it from the 18,000-acre government wild life reserve near Boise, Mont.

Swings, Not Music, Bring Shiner For Guy Lombardo

NEW YORK. (AP)—Guy Lombardo, orchestra leader, displayed a bandaged nose and a pair of discolored eyes today as tokens of what happens when a "sweet music" man gets in the way of a swing.

It was a general free-for-all fight in a Broadway restaurant early yesterday, he explained, involving himself, Harry Link, music publisher, Pete Reilly, a fight manager, and Phil Regan, singing policeman.

Heart Disease Commonest Among Doctors

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (American Wire)—Heart disease is twice as common among doctors as among any other group, in the opinion of Dr. Harry L. Smith of the Mayo clinic. Dr. Smith has just completed a survey of those entering the clinic with heart ailments. The reason is the heavy strain which doctors constantly work under," he said, "as intense every day as a banker's when there is a run on his bank."

Nazis Bring Back Old-Time Slates

BERLIN. (AP)—The old-fashioned school slate has made a comeback in Germany because of the nation's lack of raw material and the Nazi four-year plan requirements.

Bernhard Rust, minister of education, decreed slates must be used instead of exercise books in the first and second year classes beginning with the 1938 school term. The slates are also suggested for use in the third and fourth grades to supplement composition book work.

Slate is abundant in Thuringia. In many small towns in the Thuringian forest not only the roofs but even the walls of houses are of slate.

Turkey Will Drink Home-Grown Tea

ISTANBUL. (AP)—Turkey is taking steps to grow her own tea so as to keep at home the $4,000,000 a year she now spends importing it from Iran, China and Ceylon. Successful experiments in the Black sea area preceded the present scheme of giving free land and tea seeds to planters who will grow it.

If all goes well, it is thought self sufficiency will be attained in three years when importation will be prohibited.

Wife of L. A. Deputy Succumbs

ST. JOSEPH, Mo. (AP)—Mrs. Harriet Hopkins Stewart, 61, widow of Robert P. Stewart, chief deputy district attorney of Los Angeles county, died in a hospital here last night.

Mrs. Stewart, a native of this community, returned last June to reside with her brother, J. R. Hopkins, following the death of her husband.

Survivors include a sister, Mrs. G. E. Mead, San Bernardino.

Fire Department Gets in a Stew
WASHINGTON. (AP)—Rescuing cats from telephone poles and apartment dwellers from stalled elevators is old stuff to local firemen. But they have a new one they'll tell you about.

A Washington woman went to Baltimore and left a pot of stew boiling on the stove. By long distance she told Fire Marshal Calvin G. Lauber of her plight. A truck went roaring out to turn off the gas.

England's First Cardinal Since 1935

Cardinal Hunsley (wearing symbolic "Red Hat"), was welcomed back to London by the Duke of Norfolk, earl marshal and premier duke of England, who is a Catholic. As a member of the college of cardinals, the prelate will help choose a new pope, in event of the death of the reigning pontiff.

Ships on Holiday Get Beauty Treatment

SOUTHAMPTON, Eng. (AP)—Southampton's dry docks—"beauty parlors" for ships—are doing a rush business these days with liners which have come in to get "the works."

Many of the big boats have to "turn around" in 16 hours during the tourist season and don't have time to knock off for a "toning up" until the slack winter months arrive.

Examination and cleaning of the underwater parts takes about two weeks. Southampton experts expect to handle a record total of 400,000 tons this winter.

Even Weather Can Be Touchy Topic

CHICAGO. (AP)—"Nice weather we're having," said the taxicab driver to his passenger. "Yes," replied the man, "but the forecast is for bad weather." "You mean the government forecast?" inquired the cabbie. "Yes."

"Aw, them forecasters are a lot of clowns; they never get anything right," snorted the cabbie and then he launched into a long tirade on how dumb forecasters are.

The passenger listened attentively to the end of the trip and after paying the driver he handed him his card—he was C. A. Donnel, government forecaster.

German Sailors' Wives Get Near Sea

BERLIN. (AP)—The Nazis are bringing lonesome wives of German seamen closer to their absent husbands.

A home has been built at Kiel-Holtenau along the canal connecting the North and Baltic seas where the women may await passage of the ships and greet their husbands after perhaps months of separation.

Accommodations are offered free of charge. A bell notifies the women promptly, day and night, of the arrival of ships.

Dog's Sure Sniff Brings Home Bacon

DAKOTA CITY, Neb. (AP)—Thirteen-year-old Jack Magirl has a dog with a nose sensitive to bacon. That's why loot taken from a Dixon grocery store was recovered and two men were jailed as suspects.

Jack's dog smelled some bacon hidden under a bridge where Jack was ice skating. Authorities were called, and the loot discovered. Officers said they apprehended the two men when they returned to obtain the stolen articles.

Civil Service Grows Into Big Business

WASHINGTON. (AP)—Uncle Sam is an increasingly popular employer, civil service commission records show. The commission's business has tripled in some lines since 1932.

Applications for jobs have increased from 221,494 in 1932 to 934,068 in 1937. Examinations have more than tripled and the number of appointments in the classified service has grown from 21,499 to 52,383.

More has been written about Theodore Roosevelt than about any other American.

War Scare Forces Europe To Buy Food

ROTTERDAM. (American Wire).—The increasing tenseness of the international situation on continental Europe is now forcing countries dependent on imported foodstuffs to seek food sources farther abroad, it was revealed here today upon the release of governmental commerce statistics for 1937.

Outstanding among the various foodstuffs tabulated was wheat in bulk imported from the United States the past year. Imports of this commodity alone were nearly trip as compared with the previous year, the report of the Netherlands exchange showed.

Russia, Germany and the Baltic states have long been important sources for wheat and grains, but self-sufficiency programs apparently have seriously curtailed the supply for exportation.

Informed circles indicate the volume of grain importations from the Americans will continue to expand as the continental restlessness increases daily.

Alcatraz Inmates Snicker Over Dig at Lawyers

SAN FRANCISCO. (AP)—A prisoner has managed to get a wise-crack out to the world at large despite the iron-clad censorship at Alcatraz prison.

Taking a correspondence course in Spanish, he was assigned to translate: "When a lawyer is good he works hard."

The convict did so and then added also in Spanish: "But when a lawyer is bad his client works hard."

Raymond already has made up his mind to be a lawyer.

Japan Bans Use Of Tin Cans

TOKYO. (American Wire).—Lending support to widespread rumors that Japan is pressed for war materials, the imperial government has now banned the use of metal cans and leadfoil wrappings for the packaging of cigarettes and tobacco, it was revealed today.

Heretofore, many popular brands of cigarettes have been sold in round metal cans containing 50 cigarettes designed to protect the tobacco from atmospheric moisture, a common method in tropical and subtropical climates. The less expensive brands have been retailed in paper containers lined with lead and aluminum foils.

The edict now in effect provides that waxed paper be substituted as a protective, to allow the diversion of the metals to "other channels."

Experiments with domestic cellulose wrappings disclosed the material does not possess the required moisture resistance.

Speaker Defends Japan in Talk

ORANGE.—Defending the actions of Japan in China, Ken Nakazawa of the department of Oriental instruction of the University of California spoke before the Orange Rotary club Thursday.

He branded the idea that Japan might attack the United States as "grammar school logic," saying that the United States is far too rich and powerful for Japan to consider such an attack.

The speaker excused actions of Japan in China by saying that foreign powers must keep troops stationed there to protect their nationals. Incidents occur and trouble starts, he added. He compared Japan's position to that of the United States 10 years ago when Chinese troops clashed with Japanese troops in Nanking. He denied that Japan was carrying on a war of aggression.

Carl I. Thomas was program chairman, and Tom Douglas presided.

G. G. GRADUATES POPULAR Pair to Speak at Pomona Rite

GARDEN GROVE.—With the announcement by Pomona college of a series of events celebrating the 50th anniversary of that institution, it is worthy of note that of its three graduates who have been elected to speak at one or more programs, two are from Garden Grove. Mrs. T. C. Natland '23 received their entire elementary school education in Garden Grove and high school training in Santa Ana, Garden Grove having no high school at that time. Among the other 14 lecturers to speak during the celebration, which opens this week and will continue until the close of the present year, several are from foreign countries as well as leading universities of this country.

Merton Hill is the son of one of Garden Grove's pioneer families. On receiving his college degree in 1908, he returned to Garden Grove as a grammar school teacher from where he went to Uplands and some years later to Chaffee Union High school as principal, in which position he served for many years before the junior college was organized there and he became its principal.

For the past several years he has been associated with the University of California at Berkeley as director of admission. He is scheduled to give two lectures, the first at an 11 o'clock assembly May 5 on "Some Problems of Collegiate Education Today" and an evening one at Bridges hall, at 2 p. m. May 6 on "The Significance of the Junior College Movement." Manley Natland, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Natland, completed his college education just 20 years later and was then employed by the Shell Oil company as geologist, a position he held for nine years, only recently leaving that company to become manager of the Paleontologist department of the Richfield Oil company office at Long Beach. He is to give an illustrated lecture at an 11 o'clock assembly March 31 on "Micro-Organisms and Their Effects on Modern Civilization."

Cookies Make Dainty Valentines

By MRS. ALEXANDER GEORGE
AP Feature Service Writer

Express your Valentine sentiments with heart-shaped cookies. Serve them at your Valentine bridge. Or do them up in fluffy packages to send to your daughter away at school or the gentle little lady down the street.

One basic recipe will do for a whole batch, but you will need all the cutters you have. You might even make perhaps a dozen of your own to add to the variety.

The cookies will be a lot better if you roll the dough thin and then chill it an hour or so—outdoors or in the refrigerator—before you start cutting. As fast as you cut out dough shapes transfer them to a greased baking sheet with a spatula. Be sure to watch the baking closely so that the edges of the cookies don't get too brown. And turn the baking sheets occasionally so that the cookies will brown evenly.

SUGGESTIONS ON SHAPES

Here are some suggestions for cutting:

Arrange small hearts on larger, round cookies of different flavors and colors.

Cut hearts from round cookies, baking the cutouts as well as the centers.

Put hearts of contrasting flavor and color on square cookies.

Sprinkle granulated sugar, mixed with candied orange peel, over the tops of cookie dough. Vary the mixture with chopped nuts, candied cherries and coconut.

Here's a simple basic cookie recipe:

VALENTINE COOKIE RECIPE

1 cup butter 1 teaspoon vanilla
2 cups granulated sugar 1/4 teaspoon salt
2 eggs 4 cups flour
2 cups sifted baking powder 3 teaspoons baking powder

Cream butter and sugar until very soft. Add eggs, cream, vanilla and salt. Beat together for one minute. Add the rest of the ingredients. Chill. Roll out dough until it is very thin and cut out the cookies. Bake for about eight minutes on a greased baking sheet in a moderate oven.

SCANDAL BRIDE

CHAPTER 25

For Merrie the afternoon dragged unendurably. Unsuccessfully she tried to locate Jim. As his was not the kind of an office which boasted a stenographer, there was no answer to Merrie's calls.

She was shaken with spasms of fright. No doubt Jim was in court, but just suppose he had left the city? In the mirror she saw her face, small and white and somehow strange.

Who was this girl who stared back at her? Could it be the same Merrie Drake who had stood in the ante room of a church dressed in white satin and tulle only two weeks ago?

What had brought her to this? In vain she tried to remember the hectic, confusing events of the past two weeks.

HE ANSWERS

She longed for Emma, but dared not call her. She had no money for a personal maid. For three weeks she must make a show of herself at the St. Regis and save every cent in order to break through the net which held her fast.

Six o'clock found her calling Jim's apartment. At six-thirty he answered.

"Yes?" very low.

"Jim—this is Merrie," breathlessly relieved.

"Yes."

"I want to explain about last night—"

"It isn't necessary."

"Jim—don't be so cold to me."

There was no answer.

"Jim—"

"Yes."

"Yesterday was a dreadful day."

She caught her breath and gasped.

"Things happened—millions of things. I know I promised, but—"

Her voice trembled with unshed tears.

"Millions of things are always happening to you, Merrie," Jim said coldly. "They always happen to a girl like you. If you'll excuse me—"

"No."

"Can I see you tonight?"

"No." If Merrie could have seen the white line around his mouth, the tortured look in his eyes—

But she couldn't. She only heard the word "No," and a click as he broke the connection.

Merrie went to a big chair, she held the stupid little dog in her arms and closed her eyes. The hideous, preceding day unfolded before her. Scorching pictures which smothered her, intense, vivid pictures which shamed her.

If she could but go to Jim, tell him the truth, offer to give up her precarious means of livelihood, beg him to marry her, to take her away—

But that was useless. Jim had no money for himself. She couldn't

The last of the three groups to be organized is the Pioneers, composed of seventh and eighth grade boys who meet every Wednesday at 3:30 o'clock in the Baptist church bungalow. Only temporary officers and advisor has been chosen at this time, the latter position being filled for the present by Walter Johnson, with Jack Schumaker as chief ranger and Billy Hoganson as recorder.

looking for Jim's broad shoulders in this big street below.

Remembered his laugh and the utter joy of his companionship. And the pulse quickening rapture of his touch. She yearned for him, ached for him.

"I can't stand it," she moaned. "I'm hurting myself horribly. How can I laugh and be gay tonight with this dreadful gone feeling?"

NOT SO FRIGHTENED

On a swift impulse she turned and caught up the telephone. A taxi. She would go to Jim. Even if he hated her she would see him, talk to him, be sure again that he was honest and true.

It was better in the taxi. Some of the smothering loneliness and the picture of Merrie Drake. She was part of the world again.

The cab stopped at a dingy apartment building. Merrie paid the driver and let herself into a musty vestibule. She found Jim's name among the many cards in a tarnished brass frame.

With a finger poised over the bell she hesitated. Suppose he refused to see her?

About to ring the bell she heard voices. The inner door opened and Merrie slipped into the hall as the picture of Merrie Drake.

The girl looked at her curiously. It was strange to see velvet gowns and white fur wraps in that neighborhood.

Merrie heard her say, "Did you notice that girl? She looked like the picture of Merrie Drake."

Merrie picked up her long skirts and ran up two flights. Beside Jim's card had been the number, 306.

The hall smelled of fried food, laundry soap and too many people. An electric ceiling light disclosed narrow alcove each door. As Merrie stopped before 306 her heart pounded, her breathing was quick and uneven.

PANIC

For an instant panic seized her. Was she doing another stupid, foolhardy thing? Was this another wrong turn? Going to a man's apartment alone at night—was it wise?

She started at a sound beyond the door, something overturned, or a book falling to the floor.

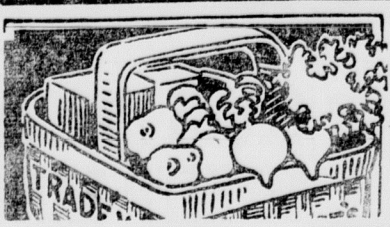

Jim Blanchard was there—her Jim. He had said he loved her and she loved him. Lightly she tapped. Immediately the door opened.

Merrie did not move. She stood there, her hands tightly clasped around an expensive evening bag, her eyes wide and beseeching. Jim was motionless.

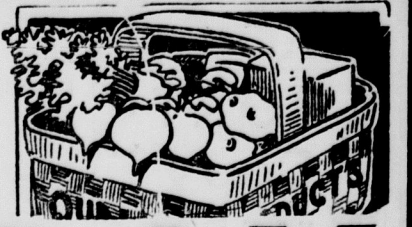

His smooth blond head was rumpled, he had removed his coat, his vest was buttoned tight around his slim, flat waist.

A light flared in his eyes when he saw Merrie, but it died, leaving them somber and cold.

"Hello, Jim," Merrie said at last in a small voice.

Orange county friends of Clarence Bishop regret to see the former Pomona college star leave Valencia High school at Piacentia, but they realize his new position as sophomore coach at Santa Barbara will offer a greater chance for advancement. At Santa Barbara, Bishop will be in charge of 485 athletes, whereas at Valencia the entire student enrollment is only 150.

Miss Ruth Jump, Santa Ana Jaycees National A. U. platform diving champion, is training at the Los Angeles Athletic club under Mrs. Aileen Allen, coach, for meets this summer. Miss Jump is pointing for the 1940 Olympics in Japan.

Tustin High school's sensational freshman center, Everett Winkler, is only 16, and thus will not become ineligible under the 20-year age limit before he completes his sophomore, junior and senior years. That's a genuine break for the Tillers, who see in Winkler another player of the Sammy Francis type.

Ralph (Babe) Pinelli, who has umpired in the National League for three years, told a scribe in San Francisco that the toughest batters for any pitcher to face are Joe Medwick of the Cardinals, Paul Waner of Pittsburgh, Mel Ott of the Giants and Bill Herman and Gabby Hartnett of the Cubs, in that order. These five absolutely will not chase a bad ball, says Pinelli. The horsehide either comes over the plate or they ignore it.

Santa Ana High school's No. 1 pitcher, Tommy Wilkins, plans to enroll at either Santa Diego State or U. S. C. after completing his eligibility here this year. . . . Tom's older brother, Jimmy, who was the ace of the Saint mound staff two seasons ago, has been signed by Scout Ernie Johnson of the Boston Red Sox for delivery to some minor league club in the South.

Not only did Russell (Rusty) Roquet of the Dons receive the "most valuable" player award in football, but he has been named by Coach Ernest Butterworth as the most valuable man on his rugby squad at the junior college. Butterworth will deeply regret to see the Anaheim bemoan transfer to U. S. C. Monday.

Mac Beall, one of the brainiest backfield men in S. A. J. C. football history, will serve as life guard during the winter at the pool of the University of Idaho, where he has enrolled with another Don regular, Dick Tauber.

Wally Hally and Drouillard Mix

HOLLYWOOD. (P)—Orville Drouillard, who hails from Windsor, Canada, and claims the lightweight championship of the Dominion, goes up against rugged Wally Hally of Los Angeles in a 10-round bout in the American Legion stadium tonight.

Drouillard was installed a favorite on his past record, although he has never appeared here before. Hally, whose stock of trade is simply to throw punches from bell to bell, promised to give the Canadian a busy evening.

SHARPSHOOTING SANTA ANA

By FRANK FISKE

It was a neck and neck tussle between my operatives and the "iron men" yesterday and though the boys were still short of "walk-around money" this morning they managed to chisel enough out of place and show bets to give them a little betting capital for today. They were pessimistic about the prospects, but not pessimistic enough to lay off and told me they were going to try again in the First . . . PARADISE figured to win his last and, in spite of the miss, still figures. THE BAILIFF is liable to catch good ones napping, any time, and I have an uneasy suspicion that Mr. Kidd is about ready to do something or other with VALINA.

Second . . . The less said about any of these the better—INFERNAL LADY—CLOUD O' DUST—RACK UP.

Third . . . REMARKABLE—HAPPY TIDINGS—MODEL DAME are the best of those that we have a line on. But don't say I didn't warn you if the winner doesn't come out of that mess of first-starters.

Fourth . . . This one is a tighter fit than a fat girl's slacks, but the contention is undoubtedly KUM-REIGH—DAUBER—LIBERTY FLIGHT. The first named gets the spot on the strength of an edge in the weights.

Levin Succeeds Sampson As 101 Promoter

CHICK TAKES MASK OFF 'THE DRAGON'

There were two significant developments today in Orange County Athletic club wrestling: (1) Melvin (Bud) Levin, veteran professional who has wrestled the leading heavyweights of the game, was the new promoter at the Highway 101 arena; and (2) the identity of the Black Dragon, hooded main-eventer, no longer was a mystery.

Levin, who will retain Matchmaker Clinton as associate, has taken over the O. C. A. C. from Sam Sampson, who has retired to devote more time to his business in Long Beach.

Announcement of the change in promoters was made last night on Sampson's final program, which saw Dude Chick, the junior heavyweight champion, defeat "The Black Dragon" in two out of three falls, and gain the right to unmask him. The villain was unveiled as Paul Buzzell, one of the toughest-looking individuals ever to set foot in the 101 ring.

New-Promoter Levin, who wrestled seven years as a professional, met such top-notchers as Bronko Nagurski, Dick Shikat, Dick Daviscourt, Joe Stecher, John Peck, the four Dusek brothers, Carl Sarpolis and Joe Cox. He played football at Brown university, Providence, R. I., during 1924-27, where he was a fullback and an amateur wrestler.

Mr. and Mrs. Levin and family will make their home in Santa Ana.

The Black Dragon's unmasking came last night when Referee Jack Allen held the hooded one's arms while Chick removed the black hood. Chick took the first fall in 10:24 with a body press, but lost the second in 6:51 on a Boston crab. He put his celebrated airplane spin to work to win the deciding fall in 3:22.

Felipe Romano, after losing his first fall in 6:53 on a body slam, came back to defeat Tarzan Montgomery, the Arkansas terror, with body slams in 10:07 and a body press in 12:35. Yukon Jake defeated the "Honolulu Hurricane," Al Wescott, in a rough bout in 10:26. Ernie Piluso took the one-fall opener from Frankie Hill in 14:59 with a rope kickoff and body press.

WARD FORFEITS TO AL'S FIVE

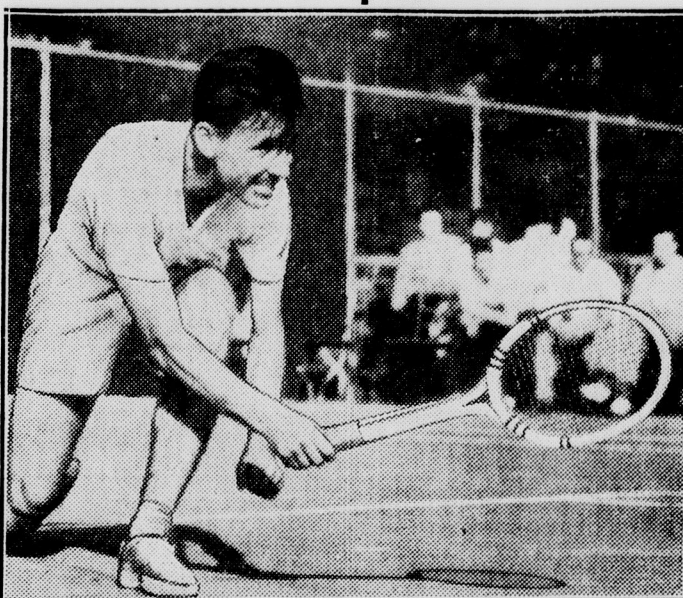

Using an ineligible player in their lineup, Montgomery Ward's basketball club forfeited their match with Al's Lock and Key shop last night, with Al's winning from Ward's makeshift lineup, 28-26.

The Church of the Brethren thumped Excelsior Creamery in the other Y. M. C. A. league tilt, 33-18.

Brethren's Barris sank 13 points in leading his team's assault. Yount of Ward's and Kolhorst of Al's tossed in eight points.

PAIRINGS FOR DAVIS CUP ANNOUNCED

NEW YORK. (P)—Great Britain's tennis forces, two years ago the all-conquering holders of the Davis Cup, face a stern fight this year if they are to get into the challenge round against the United States.

Germany's strong team, the United States' most effective opponents last year, and France and Czechoslovakia, the latter two nations boasting young and eager players, are all in the European zone pairings with the British team.

The German team, which apparently will be headed by Baron Gottfried Von Cramm and Henner Henkel, drew a bye for the first round in the schedules drawn yesterday at Washington by Secretary of State Hull. The Germans will meet Norway in their first round match, in all probability the Czechoslovakia-Yugoslavia first round match, in all probability the Czech team.

France, meeting the Netherlands in the first round and Monaco in the second, should get into the European zone semifinals without much difficulty. Germany, facing Hungary-New Zealand matches, is another probability, along with Poland vs. Denmark, Ireland vs. Italy, Czechoslovakia vs. Yugoslavia, Great Britain vs. Rumania. Second round matches will be Sweden vs. Switzerland; Greece vs. Belgium; Austria vs. India. The winner of the matches between the European and American zone teams will meet the United States team in the challenge round.

The complete draw:
American zone—Japan vs. Canada; Australia vs. Mexico. Winners of these matches will meet for the American zone title and the right to play the victor in the European zone semifinals.
European zone—Second round (first round byes): Germany vs. Norway; Hungary vs. New Zealand; France vs. winner of France-Netherlands series. First round: France vs. Netherlands; Poland vs. Denmark; Ireland vs. Italy; Czechoslovakia vs. Yugoslavia; Great Britain vs. Rumania. Second round matches will be Sweden vs. Switzerland; Greece vs. Belgium; Austria vs. India. The winner of the matches between the European and American zone teams will meet the United States team in the challenge round.

MILLS BEATEN BY CONCORDIA

In a fast, closely fought basketball game last night, Orange Concordians took Santa Ana Woolen Mills' measure, 32-29, at Orange in a County league game. The loss was the Quentin Matzen club's third against two victories.

Clarence Pargess and Walt Gunther kept Orange on top with 10 and eight points while Tommy Lacy was the only Loomer to hit the basket consistently, sinking nine points. Halftime score was 19-16.

Orange (33): Pos. (28) Woolen Mills Fitch (33); Pos. (18) Excelsior Barris (13); Pos. (13) Wetzel Reyes (6); Pos. (1) L. Goodin Sisael (4); Pos. (9) E. Eastham Dickey (7); Pos. (2) W. Goodin Teter (3); Pos. (2) G. Collins McChesney (3).

Substitutions:
Brethren—H. Baker (3), E. Baker (2), Excelsior—E. Goodin (5), Limbaugh.

Three years ago—Joe Medwick was Dizzy Dean on St. Louis Cardinals' holdout list, asking $10,000.

Rain Delays Rugby Match Between Dons and U.C.L.A.

Lack of practice because of rain and loss of several regulars through mid-term transfers will keep Santa Ana Junior college's rugby club out of action tomorrow afternoon against U. C. L. A.'s Cubs at the Los Angeles Coliseum.

Russell (Rusty) Roquet transfers to U. S. C. Monday, and Joe Crawford's injured hand will keep him on the sidelines the rest of the season. A Southern California Rugby league encounter with Compton Jaycee Friday night in the Municipal Bowl will be Coach Ernest Butterworth's next game for the Dons.

San Juan Capistrano at Tustin. Brea-Orinda vs. Valencia. Laguna Beach at Garden Grove.

Two games away from the Orange Prep league championship, Coach Bill Cole's Tustin Tilters engage San Juan Capistrano in a variety game on Tustin's spacious floor at 8 o'clock tonight, following a class B preliminary.

If the favored Tustinites defeat San Juan Capistrano, the loss will drop Gil Strother's Cougars to third place in league standings provided Garden Grove's Argonauts win at home against Laguna Beach. Brea-Orinda and Valencia tangle in the other game.

Tustin defeated Garden Grove, 33-22, for the league lead last week.

Don Five Plays Phoenix Tonight

Two sharpshooting threats, Cy Leivermann and Art Heinisch, Minnesota's contributions to Santa Ana Junior college's basketball club, will lead the Dons' new-found offensive punch against the invasion of Phoenix, Ariz. Jaycee at 8 o'clock tonight on Santa Ana High school's floor. Fullerton defeated Phoenix, 56-32, at Fullerton last night. It will be Heinisch's second start since enrolling with the Dons this week. He tossed in 18 points against the tough Fullerton Town Team Tuesday night. Leivermann has been consistent all season for 10 or more points per game.

PRO GOLFERS SEEK $3000 AT OAKLAND

SACRAMENTO. (P)—Most of the country's leading professionals were listed among the hundred or more golf masters to tramp the rain-soaked municipal links today in the first round of the 72-hole $3000 Sacramento open.

It's the fifth tournament on the annual winter swing for the touring pros, who competed in the $5000 Oakland open last weekend and here will go to San Francisco for the $5000 national match play tournament.

Low scorers in today's 18 holes will play another 18 tomorrow, with 36-hole finals Sunday.

The 72-par Sacramento course is nearly 1000 yards longer than the Sequoyah layout, where the Oakland open was held, and with the turf in soggy condition there was little likelihood any of the shotmakers could approach the winning 273, 15 under par, made last year by Ed Dudley, who will not defend his title.

Length of the course was expected to favor such long drivers as Jimmy Thompson of Shawnee-on-the-Delaware, Pa. Jimmy Hines of Garden City, N. Y.; Sam Snead of White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., and Lawson Little, San Francisco, the former amateur king.

Thompson, leading money winner of the season with $2350 in his jeans, won all but $50 of that amount in capturing the Los Angeles open last month. Hines has finished second in two tournaments and tied for second in a third.

Other hot favorites included Harry Cooper of Chicago, Mass., winner of the Oakland open; Henry Picard of Hershey, Pa., victor in the Pasadena open; Johnny Revolta of Evanston, Ill.; Horton Smith of Chicago, and Paul Runyan of White Plains, N. Y.

Vines Loses, But Still Leads, 8-6

FRESNO. (P)—Fred Perry defeated Ellsworth Vines, 14-12, 6-2, in a professional tennis exhibition here last night. Vines still holds a lead of 8 matches to 6 in their 75-match touring series.

Walter Senior defeated Berkeley, 6-4, 6-2, and in a doubles match Vines and Senior defeated Perry and Bell, 7-5, 6-10.

STANFORD FIVE HOST TO BEARS

PALO ALTO. (P)—California's surprising basketball team, undefeated in five starts, will try to make it two victories in a row over arch-rival Stanford in a southern division Pacific Coast conference game here tonight.

The Bears won the first of the four-game series by a 47 to 44 count at Berkeley two weeks ago and last week-end beat Southern California twice. Stanford has lost one game to U. S. C.

Tonight's game was considered about a toss-up despite the auspicious California record. The Indians, playing on their home court, are figured to be back in their old-time form after a pair of lopsided wins over U. C. L. A. at Los Angeles.

Loyola Ice Hockey Team Trims Bears

OAKLAND. (P)—Loyola's ice hockey team will try to clinch its two-match series with University of California here tomorrow night. The Loyolans, checking a vigorous fourth-period Bear rally, won last night's contest, 6-3.

Excelsior's Pilots will attempt to clinch in a home game with Long Beach Jordan. Newport Harbor's Tars will be seeking their first victory of the season against Leon Miner's Oilers at Huntington Beach.

Chauncey Woodmore, who has scored 62 points in four games this season, will be Anaheim's chief threat against Orange's Panthers, who will have the high scoring Bob (Spider) Shildmeyer at center, Henry Martinez and Dick Gunther at forward, Elmer Worden and Ray Amling at guard.

KOVACS TRIMS BITSY GRANT

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (P)—The spotlight was on 18-year-old Frank Kovacs of Oakland, Calif., in the semi-finals of the Surf club tennis tournament today.

Kovacs, who defeated Bryan (Bitsy) Grant of Atlanta in the quarter-finals, met Wilmer Hines of Hollywood, Calif.

Grant, deserted by his usual steadiness, was no match for the Oakland junior star yesterday and bowed out 6-3, 3-6, 6-4 under Kovacs' powerful backhand and steaming service.

Hines ran through his match with George Pero of Miami, 6-2, 6-2.

Lee is something of a newcomer around here, but he made a powerful impression in beating Walter Woods, a local favorite, and knocking out Harry Balsamo. Before his two starts here he had gained fame farther west as a welterweight, beating both Ceferyn Gormaz and Johnny Jannazzo.

He's been a busy little guy, a hard puncher and untiring. Like Apostoli, he likes to stand up there and punch it out, so it looks like a good scrap. The betting has been 3 to 1 on Apostoli, which is natural considering the fact he has topped seven of his last eight opponents, including the champion. But Lee's followers think he has a big chance of winning, and the short-enders have had a phenomenal string of victories in the Garden lately.

The battle should prove, at least, whether Apostoli really is the terrific fighter he appeared to be against Steele.

CLUBS DECIDE TO KEEP SAN BERNARDINO

Retaining San Bernardino as a sixth member, and electing Jimmie Heffron as president to succeed Walter Wentz, the National Night-ball league mapped first plans for the 1938 season in a three-hour session at Garden Grove last night.

"We feel that the fans of San Bernardino are entitled to the very best of competition, and I can assure you that the Pioneers will not pull out during mid-season," Howard Bard, boss of the inlanders, told the league. All except the Orange Cubs voted to give San Bernardino permanent membership.

Six teams definitely are in the 1938 chase—Anaheim, Santa Ana, Huntington Beach, Orange, Westvale, and San Bernardino—and efforts will be made to interest two more teams, with Irvine, Fullerton and Brea as prospective entries.

Heffron, sports editor of the Anaheim Bulletin, was a unanimous choice to succeed Wentz, the able Garden Grove official who last night ended a three-year reign as head of the league. Joe Rodgers, Huntington Beach manager and president of the Oiler commission, was named vice president, and Lee McClellan was retained as secretary-treasurer.

The meeting lacked the fireworks of past sessions, although it required more than an hour for the league to decide who was the official representative of the Anaheim club, W. E. (Billy) Feister, business manager, was removed by the Anaheim commission on Jan. 28, but no official notice was given by Commissioners William Webb Jr., and Pete Funk until last night. Feister, maintaining he was business manager until officially voted out of the league, turned in yesterday to President Wentz 13 player releases, which Wentz recognized. Anaheim claimed Feister had no authority to act after Jan. 28.

Feister severed his relations last night, and the Anaheim club became the club's official representative. The player controversy was tabled.

Apostoli 3-1 Over Lee in N. Y. Tonight

By GAYLE TALBOT
NEW YORK.—The middleweight situation, already complicated, has a chance to get completely out of control tonight when Glen Lee, a tough little mug from the Mid-West, tackles Fred Apostoli, the "uncrowned champion" in a 12-rounder at the Garden.

It's reported, though not confirmed, that Apostoli, who recently bashed out the champion, Freddie Steele, in an over-weight affair, has refused to lay his share of the "title" on the line. That is, the San Francisco thumper insists upon retaining the "uncrowned champ," whatever happens tonight.

MORE FUNDS SOUGHT FOR CHINA RELIEF

With only $128 in the treasury, $100 of which is from Garden Grove, directors of the Santa Ana Red Cross chapter will meet this afternoon at 4 o'clock to map plans for intensifying the campaign to raise relief funds for Chinese war refugees.

"The lack of response to the most urgent appeal made by the President of the United States through the American Red Cross is of great concern to the chapter," Dr. John Wehrly, local chapter chairman, said today. The meeting this afternoon will be held at the local headquarters, 624 North Main street.

The Garden Grove chapter's contribution since the drive was opened a week ago is $100 to date. Another $28 has been turned in by four individual donors in this vicinity.

"Only $125 will take care of a Chinese refugee for one month, feeding, clothing and giving him medical care, we are told," Wehrly continued. "Surely there are hosts of people who wish to be responsible for at least one person for one month."

McAdoo Sent Plea To Expand CCC

LOS ANGELES. (AP)—An appeal has been sent to Senator McAdoo by Roger W. Jessup, chairman of the board of supervisors, urging that CCC activities be continued and expanded in Los Angeles county.

Jessup pointed out in a letter to the senator that the number of camps in the county has been reduced from 16 to three in the last two years and that their discontinuance has been proposed as an economy measure.

He said he would sponsor a resolution before the supervisors next week asking the President to continue the CCC program here.

Prairie Dog Beat Ground Hog As Forecaster

ESTANCIA, N. M. (AP)—The prairie dog school of weather forecasting solemnly predicted six weeks more of winter.

Sneering lightly at ground hog day, followers of the prairie dog were up early and after professing to see several prairie dogs gaze at their shadow, were quick to make their forecast.

"The prairie dog," asserted Dr. C. E. Ewing, president of the Lions club, "not only is good for food, but he is a better weather forecaster than the ground hog."

ORANGE COUNTY'S OWN

Shirley's Stand-In, Mary Lou, Knew Her Famed Friend When---

By ROBBIN COONS
(AP) Feature Writer

HOLLYWOOD. — Three years ago little Mary Lou Isleib of Glendale changed her coiffure. Instead of wearing her blonde, wavy hair parted simply in the middle, Mary Lou began a ritual. Every night before going to bed she had her locks curled neatly around 70 "bobbie pins," and each morning Mary Lou awoke with 70 neat little curls piled on her shapely head.

Over the country hundreds of other little girls were subjected to the same procedure. Proud mammas were turning out hundreds of imitations of Shirley Temple. Of them all, Mary Lou was the only one with a solid, practical reason. She was Shirley Temple's stand-in and still is.

A FRIENDLY PROPOSITION
The job includes naturally being Shirley's best friend and playmate. And that is why Mary Lou was chosen.

The Temples and the Isleibs have been friends some 15 years. George Temple, Shirley's father, and Harry Isleib, Mary Lou's, worked in the same bank. When Shirley needed a stand-in, and the Temples were very particular about the family from which she came, Mrs. Temple went to Mrs. Isleib. Mary Lou, when the question was put to her, was all in favor.

Today Mary Lou, who'll be 10 years old next June, enjoys many of the advantages of film stardom with none of the disadvantages.

SAVING HER MONEY
Her earnings don't touch Shirley's—a stand-in makes about $50 a week—but Mary Lou gets a regular allowance of $1 weekly to spend as she pleases. (Shirley isn't on allowance—when she wants something she asks for it.) Shirley's money is being saved; so is Mary Lou's. And the little girl has the fun of studio life without the handicap of the publicity.

Nine months older than Shirley, Mary Lou also is two inches taller. They are in the same grade—A-4—at the 20th Century-Fox studio school. Like Mrs. Temple, Mrs. Isleib always is present when the children are on the set. At home in Glendale, Mary Lou plays like any other little girl. Shirley has to have a bodyguard. SHY WITH STRANGERS.

Rather shy with strangers, Mary Lou is more aggressive among children, and she has no more awe of the child movie star than Shirley has of her. Like any two little girls, both are prone to get the " giggles " simultaneously on occasion. In their frequent childish "spats" Mary Lou stands on equal footing with the star. Mary Lou's biggest dolls are presents from Shirley.

As a perfect foil for Shirley, Mary Lou should have spinach. Disappointingly, she loves it. Mrs. Isleib, a pleasant little woman with a sense of humor, confesses to one lasting embarrassment:

"When Mary Lou and I walk down the street, I'm always sure people are saying: 'There goes one of those mothers trying to make her poor little girl look like Shirley Temple!'"

F. R. Stands Firm On Foreign Policy

WASHINGTON. (AP)—Informed officials predict that senate criticism would fail to alter the administration's course in international relations.

President Roosevelt told his press conference this week that his foreign policy was very clear to most people. His comment followed demands from Senator Borah (R., Ida.) and Senator Johnson (R., Calif.) for clarification.

Borah told the senate that through an administration policy of silence, other nations were being led to believe the United States and Great Britain had formed a "tacit alliance" to build up their navies. This situation, he declared, invited war.

JOANNA SOUTHCOTT... Perhaps Barnum was right when he said "the public likes to be humbugged." One of the strangest schemes for raising money was born in the mind of Joanna Southcott, an English religious fanatic.

Born at Gittisham, Devonshire, she joined the Methodists and later began writing prophecies. In 1802 she settled in London, where a chapel was opened for her followers, and Joanna put forth the idea that she was about to become the mother of Shiloh, the second Christ. Then, as recounted in Revelation VII:4 of the Bible, she proceeded to "seal" 144,000 elect to insure their existence during the Millennium, the 1000 years during which Christ was to reign on earth and holiness was to be triumphant. Joanna Southcott actually succeeded in selling her 144,000 tickets at prices ranging from $2.50 to $5.00. But Shiloh failed to appear and it was stated that Joanna was in a trance. In 1814 she died of a brain disorder.

ATHLETIC PRESIDENT... George Washington, as a boy, was a strapping youth and an accomplished wrestler. He was able to throw all comers in Virginia until he discontinued active competition at 18, and was proclaimed champion of the colony.
